TREMONT TEMPLE

February is Black History Month, and the Hub has plenty of significant locales to explore, including the 14 sites of the Black Heritage Trail (refer to listing, page 44). Although not on the path that winds through Beacon Hill, the nearby Tremont Temple—located at 88 Tremont St. and formally known as the Tremont Temple Baptist Church—ranks as an important structure relating to Boston's legacy as a bastion of the anti-slavery movement.

In 1836, abolitionist Timothy Gilbert, a member of Beacon Hill's Charles Street Baptist Church, invited a few black friends to sit with him in his pew, resulting in his expulsion from the then-segregated house of worship. In 1838, Gilbert and some like-minded men established what was initially known as the Baptist Free Church, in reference to its opposition to the common practice of charging rent for pews as well as its status as the first integrated church in the country.

The church didn't begin its connection with Tremont Street until 1843, when it purchased the Greek Revival-style Tremont Theatre. The structure wasn't just used for religious purposes, as it also hosted public events over the years—including Charles Dickens' first reading of "A Christmas Carol" and "The Pickwick Papers" in the U.S. in 1867 and the first reading of the Emancipation Proclamation in Boston in 1863—and several stores on the ground floor, the rent from which helped pay the church's expenses.

A series of fires at the location in 1852, 1879 and 1893, however, eventually led to the erecting of the current, larger edifice in 1896. Designed in an ornate, Renaissance Revival style by famed architect Clarence Blackall, the building became a local landmark, and, until recently, continued to host non-church events in its spacious auditorium, including film screenings, opera and, for many years, the popular Boston production of Langston Hughes' Black Nativity during the holiday season.

Today, Tremont Temple remains an active house of worship. Its main service takes place on Sundays at 10:30 a.m. For more information, visit tremonttemple.net. —Scott Roberto

RENAISSANCE MAN

Although he didn't have a Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtle named after him, Fra Angelico (about 1400–1455) remains one of the most significant and famed artists of the Italian Renaissance. The Dominican monk and painter earned important commissions from two popes, as well as the notorious Medici family, during his life, making his mark as a brilliant colorist and innovative storyteller. The Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum (refer to listing, page 21) has been the home to one of his reliquaries for more than a century, yet it is reunited with three of its newly restored companions for the first time in 200 years for the exhibit Fra Angelico: Heaven on Earth beginning February 22. Also on view are other notable works loaned from Rome (above), the National Gallery of Art in Washington, D.C., and Fra Angelico's native Florence. The Gardner Museum is the only stop for this unique display, so catch it before it closes on May 20.

BEANTOWN SHOWDOWN

Hockey is a tradition in this region, and there's perhaps no greater evidence of this than The Beanpot (refer to listing, page 18), the annual hockey tournament between rival schools Boston University, Boston College, Northeastern University and Harvard University. Held at the TD Garden, this storied contest for local bragging rights marks its 66th iteration this year, with the Harvard Crimson as the reigning 2017 champion. See who gets to keep the silver trophy for 2018 as BC faces Northeastern at 5 p.m. and BU skates against Harvard at 8 p.m. in the preliminary round on February 5. The finals take place the following Monday, February 12, with the winners facing off at 7:30 p.m. after the 4:30 p.m. consolation match.

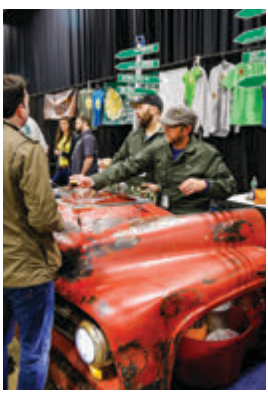
MORE TO SEA

In coastal areas like Boston, boating can be a way of life. For those of you who feel a kinship to the sea, there's the 63rd annual New England Boat Show (refer to listing, page 18) taking place at the Boston Convention & Exhibition Center from February 10–18. Browse dozens of the latest vessels, peruse state-of-the-art boating gear, get professional advice at various educational opportunities, pilot a boat via a virtual simulator, participate in kayaking and fishing demonstrations, and enjoy cooking tips from chef Jason Heard of South Boston's Coppersmith on the convention floor. Kids can get in on the action as well as the expo offers areas where the little ones can build their own toy boats and check out actual U.S. Coast Guard ships. Contests and giveaways also abound, so there's no reason for the nautically inclined not to rush down to the Seaport and indulge their inner skippers.

A-MAZE-ING SCIENCE

The Museum of Science (refer to listing, page 23) becomes a virtual fun house when A Mirror Maze: Numbers in Nature debuts February 4. Ostensibly an exploration of the presence of mathematical patterns in the natural world—and no doubt filled with interactive displays about fractal branching, spirals, Voronoi patterns and the golden ratio, as well as an immersive, educational film featuring footage of art, architecture, nature and the human body—the exhibit boasts a centerpiece that is sure to be a hit with the kids: a 1,700-square-foot, mirror-walled maze filled with dead ends and a secret room filled with puzzles and artifacts. Tell your little ones it's all designed to teach them about symmetry, tessellation, patterns and how they relate to math, but they'll probably be having too much fun to care.

BREWS FOR THE BOLD



Boston-born magazine/website BeerAdvocate once again hosts its Extreme Beer Fest Boston (refer to listing, page 18) at the Seaport Hotel & World Trade Center February 2 & 3, an event sure to attract lovers of the weird, creative, funky, complex and, yes, extreme end of the independent craft brewing spectrum. If you count yourself a member of that tribe, or you're merely curious to see what it's all about, then head down to the waterfront to sample imperial stouts, saisons, double IPAs and quadrupels from such acclaimed breweries as Portland, Maine's Allagash Brewing Company; Everett, Massachusetts' Night Shift Brewing; California's The Lost Abbey; Florida's Cigar City Brewing; and even international labels from Canada and Brazil. A trio of three-and-a-half hour sessions are available, so get your tickets to this popular, 15th annual extravaganza before they disappear. —Scott Roberto

BIENVENUE À BOSTON!

Boston, Massachusetts est la ville la plus grande dans la Nouvelle-Angleterre. Fondée en 1630, Boston est l'une des plus anciennes villes des États-Unis et a été la scène de nombreux événements clés pendant la Révolution américaine, la Boston Tea Party, la Chevauchée de Paul Revere et la bataille de Bunker Hill. Pourtant, son histoire est juste une des nombreuses raisons pour lesquelles plus de 19 millions de visiteurs voyagent ici chaque année. Aujourd'hui Boston est connue pour ses collèges et universités de renommée mondiale, des équipements culturels exceptionnels, des institutions médicales supérieurs des industries de haute technologie et de la biotechnologie en plein croissance.

La meilleure façon d'explorer Boston est tout simplement de marcher. La ville est souvent dénommée comme une « ville de quartiers », et chacun d'eux a sa propre personnalité distincte mieux découverte à pied. Back Bay, le quartier le plus élégant de Boston, est un charmant mélange d'ancien et de nouveau, le foyer de monuments historiques importants tels que la Bibliothèque Boston Public, Copley Square, la rue branchée Newbury Street, les deux plus hauts bâtiments-200 Clarendon (anciennement la tour John Hancock) et le Prudential Building - et deux des plus belles artères résidentielles de l'Amérique, Commonwealth Avenue et Marlborough Street.

Le proche Beacon Hill devrait être le prochain sur votre chemin à pied, où les historiques maisons en briques rouges en rangée bordent les rues pittoresques et le charmant Charles Street attire avec ses nombreux magasins et restaurants. Vous pouvez aussi explorer les débuts du fameux Freedom Trail, qui se continue dans l'historique North End, « La petite Italie » propre a Boston. Découvrez une cuisine italienne authentique dans de nombreux excellents restaurants de North End et profiter des festivals animés tout au long des mois d'été. Après votre déjeuner ou dîner -et cannoli !-, marcher à travers la belle Rose Kennedy Greenway, qui sépare North End des boutiques, restaurants et lieux de divertissement myriade du marché de Faneuil Hall, l'une des destinations les plus populaires aux États-Unis.

De Faneuil Hall, vous pouvez retourner à Boston Harbor à travers la Greenway et suivre l'aimable Harbor Walk vers le plus récent quartier de Boston, le district de Seaport. Sur le chemin, vous découvrirez le New England Aquarium, les navires et la musée du Boston Tea Party, l'Institut d'Art Contemporain et des restaurants plus nombreux que ce que vous pouvez imaginer.

¡BIENVENIDO A BOSTON!

Boston, Massachusetts es la ciudad más grande de Nueva Inglaterra. Fundada en 1630, Boston es una de las ciudades más antiguas de los Estados Unidos y fue el escenario de muchos eventos claves durante la Revolución estadounidense el Motín del té, la cabalgada de medianoche de Paul Revere y la batalla de Bunker Hill. Sin embargo, su historia es sólo una de las muchas razones por las cuales más de 19 millones de visitantes vienen aquí cada año. Hoy Boston es conocida por sus universidades de fama mundial, los excelentes servicios culturales, las mejores instituciones médicas y las crecientes industrias de alta tecnología y de biotecnología.

La mejor manera de explorar Boston es caminando. La ciudad es a menudo llamada una "ciudad de barrios", y cada uno de ellos tiene su propia personalidad que se descubre mejor a pie. Back Bay, el barrio más elegante de Boston, es una encantadora mezcla de lo viejo y lo nuevo, es sede a monumentos históricos importantes, como la Biblioteca Pública de Boston, la Plaza Copley, la refinada calle Newbury Street, los dos edificios más altos de la cuidad 200 Clarendon (antiguamente la Torre de John Hancock) y el Prudential Building y una de las más bellas calles residenciales en los Estados Unidos a lo largo de la arbolada avenida Commonwealth y Marlborough Street.

La cercana vecindad de Beacon Hill, donde hileras de casas históricas de ladrillo rojo delinean calles pintorescas y Charles Street nos invita con sus numerosas tiendas y restaurantes finos, debe ser lo próximo en su paseo. También puede explorar los inicios del famoso Freedom Trail, que continúa en el histórico North End, la "Pequeña Italia" de Boston. Descubra la auténtica cocina italiana en muchos restaurantes excelentes de North End y disfrute de los animados festivales durante de los meses de verano. Después de su almuerzo o cenay cannolo, camine a través de la hermosa Rose Kennedy Greenway, que separa el North End de la miríada de comercios, restaurantes y entretenimientos del efervescente Mercado Faneuil Hall, uno de los sitios más visitados en los Estados Unidos.

De Faneuil Hall se puede regresar al otro lado de Greenway a la bahía de Boston y seguir el Harborwalk hacia el barrio más nuevo de Boston, el Distrito Seaport. Por el camino, descubrirá el Acuario de Nueva Inglaterra, varios hoteles alucinantes, el Museo del Motín del té, el Instituto de Arte Contemporáneo y más restaurantes que lo que se puede imaginar.

マサチューセッツ州にあるボストンはニューイングランド地方で最大の都市です。 1630年に設立されたボストンはアメリカ合衆国で最も歴史のある都市のひとつであり、「ボストン茶会事件」、ポール・リビアの「真夜中の騎行」、「バンカーヒルの戦い」など、アメリカ独立戦争の鍵となる様々な事件の舞台ともなりました。 ですが、ボストンが歴史ある街であることは毎年19万人以上の旅行客が訪れる理由のたった１つにしか過ぎません。 今日、ボストンは世界で名高い大学、傑出した文化施設、トップレベルの医療機関そしていまなお成長を止まないハイテクノロジー産業とバイオテクノロジー産業があることで知られています。

ボストンを探検する一番いい方法は街歩きです。 ボストンは「ネイバーフッド」と呼ばれる地区のようなものが沢山あり、「シティー・オブ・ネイバーフッズ」としばしば言われています。それぞれの地区にははっきりとした個性があってそれらは街歩きによって最も体感することができます。 ボストンにおいて最も格調の高い地区であるバックベイは古き良きものと新しいものがうまく混在されている素敵な場所です。ボストン公立図書館、コプリー・スクエア、流行の最先端であるニューベリー・ストリート、(以前ジョンハンコックタワーと呼ばれていた)200クラレンドンとプルデンシャル・センターという街で最も高い2つのビル、そして木々が連なるコモンウェルスアベニューとマールバラストリートという、アメリカで最も美しい居住地区である大きな道路があります。

ベーコンヒルの近くが次にあなたが足で訪れるべき目的地となります。 そこはまるで絵本の世界にあるような道に歴史ある赤レンガの家々が連なり、沢山の面白いお店やレストランが旅行者を誘う可愛らしいチャールズ通りがある場所です。 ボストン固有のリトルイタリーがある歴史あるノース・エンドまで続く有名なフリーダムトレイルの最初の部分も散策することもできます。 正真正銘のイタリア料理をノース・エンドにある素晴らしいレストランで堪能してみてください、そして夏の間に開かれる活気あるフェスティバルを是非楽しんでください。 ランチやディナーの後は美しいローズ・ケネディ・グリーンウェイを横断してみてください。この道はショッピングや食事、エンターテイメントが心行くまで楽しめるファニルホール市場という、アメリカで最も観光客が訪れるにぎやかな場所の１つであり、その場所とノース・エンドを分けている道です。

ファニエルホールからはグリーンウェイを越えてボストンハーバーに歩いて帰ることができ、その道を進んでいくとボストンで一番新しい地区、シーポートエリアに向かうことができます。 その道沿いでは、ニューイングランド水族館、いくつかの特筆すべきホテル、ボストン茶会事件船と博物館、ボストン・コンテンポラリーアート美術館(ICAボストン)そして想像以上の数のレストランを見つけることができます。

これらはボストンの素晴らしい場所のほんの少しにしかすぎません。 bostonguide.comを検索して上記の場所についてのさらなる詳細やボストンのその他全てのユニークで忘れられないスポットについて是非調べてみてください。

Beacon Hill

Strolling along Beacon Hill's picturesque gas-lit streets, brick sidewalks and Federal-style row houses, it's not uncommon to feel as though you've traveled back in time. Both eminently posh and utterly accommodating, this area has borne witness to much of the city's storied past. The State House—with its gleaming gold dome—sits on the peak of the hill where the beacon for which the district was named used to reside. In this neighborhood, visitors can also find the African Meeting House, which holds the Museum of African American History, as well as the Bull and Finch Pub, the inspiration for the popular TV show, "Cheers." Charles Street, located at the flat of the hill, is lined with boutiques, restaurants, cafes and charming hotels. Locals descend the hill daily to enjoy all that Charles Street has to offer, adding to the feeling of small-town charm.

BUILDING EXCITEMENT

MEGAN AMARAL, master model builder at Legoland Discovery Center Boston, crafts Star Wars-themed fun for school vacation week

MEGAN AMARAL HAS THE KIND OF job that most children (and many adults) merely dream about. Amaral, a Massachusetts native with an architecture degree and a lifelong love for building with Lego, is a master model builder at Legoland Discovery Center, the activity-filled, family-friendly destination at Assembly Row in Somerville, Mass., filled with literally millions of Lego bricks. The journey was not easy; the competition for this position is fierce. Yet through continued dedication and participation in multiple contests, Amaral attained it, and now she spends her days exploring the endless possibilities of Lego's entertaining construction system.

"I love solving problems," Amaral explains. "Every Lego project I undertake is a problem waiting for a solution." Her duties as a master model builder include teaching classes and constructing projects that complement the center's thematic programming. For example, she is currently designing a Lego-brick Olympic logo display to celebrate South Korea's 2018 Winter Olympics.

Like children across Greater Boston, Amaral is excited for February's school vacation week (February 19–25), which coincides with a Star Wars extravaganza at Legoland. A Star Wars-themed Miniland (intricate models that can take months—or even years—to build) are on view starting February 10. This model features scenes from Star Wars Episode II: Attack of the Clones, and includes iconic characters Anakin Skywalker, Boba Fett and more. "As a Star Wars fan, I'm very excited about this display," says Amaral. "The Star Wars world lends itself to Lego very well." Amaral is also orchestrating a Star Wars "invasion" of the permanent Boston Miniland, which involves a scavenger hunt for the franchise's characters hidden among iconic Boston landmarks. Kids are also invited to help construct a large mosaic mural depicting a Star Wars-themed surprise that will be revealed as the mural progresses.

If the center's impressive Minilands, entertaining rides and hands-on classes inspire you—I mean, your kids—to become a Lego master, Amaral has words of encouragement. "Just keep building and keep challenging yourself....There is always more than one way to build something. If you find one way, don't stop there. Explore working with new sizes and pieces....The sky really is the limit."
