'TIS THE SEASON!

Panorama's Best Bets for holiday fun in the Hub

by Christine Celli and Scott Roberto

Visions of Sugar Plums...

Boston Ballet's rendition of The Nutcracker has long been one of the area's biggest holiday events—in fact, it annually attracts more people than any other staging of The Nutcracker in the country. This year, however, the 41st edition of the beloved classic moves from the Ballet's traditional home at the enormous Wang Theatre to the more intimate confines of the historic Colonial Theatre, where it takes up residence through December 31. To mark the occasion, the company has re-tooled the production, creating all-new sets, costumes and choreography to best utilize the new venue. Based on E.T.A. Hoffmann's fairytale and set to the memorable compositions of Tchaikovsky, The Nutcracker is still sure to capture the magic of the holiday season like no other event. For those on a budget, another local tradition takes up residence at the Sanctuary Theatre in Cambridge's Harvard Square when Jose Mateo's Ballet Theatre's version of The Nutcracker hits the stage for its 17th year through December 19. Refer to listings, pages 16 & 18.

Pops Stars

Boston's holiday season hits full swing when the beloved Boston Pops take the stage at Symphony Hall for its annual Holiday Pops concerts beginning December 13. Maestro Keith Lockhart and principal guest conductor Bruce Hangen are joined by an array of special musical visitors—including country music star Collin Raye and teenage singing sensation Hayley Westenra (who appear on December 16 in a show to be taped for television)—and even Santa himself as the Pops highlight selections from its new holiday CD through December 31. Refer to listing, page 12.

Poetry in Motion

A powerful marriage of the Gospel of St. Luke and the poetry of Langston Hughes, Black Nativity unites scripture, verse, music and dance to create a holiday event brought to life by 160 singers, actors, dancers and musicians. Boston boasts the oldest production in the nation, featuring such memorable songs as "Go Tell It On the Mountain" and "O' Jer-usalem," and is produced by the National Center for Afro-American Artists. Through December 19 at the Tremont Temple Baptist Church. Refer to listing, page 16.

All Aboard!

Nearly everything in the Bay State tends to be aglow with twinkling lights this time of year, but for a truly spectacular holiday display that can be enjoyed while on board a heated passenger train, head to South Carver and Edaville USA—a railroad-themed amusement park built around a cranberry bog.

Edaville offers visitors a chance to step back to a time when rail travel was the only way to get where you wanted to go. The park also boasts several children's rides and a museum dedicated to the history of cranberry farming, the state's biggest agricultural industry. But it's around the holidays that things get truly magical. Board one of several antique trains and take a five-and-a-half mile journey through the park, which glitters with thousands of lights. When your trip concludes, grab a hot chocolate at the Freight House Cafe and then pay a visit to Santa Claus, who is on hand at Cran Central Junction. Refer to listing, page 18.

Now Playing

The Brattle Theatre in Cambridge screens the Jimmy Stewart holiday classic It's a Wonderful Life, December 17-21. For a more modern look at the season, check out Steve Odederk's Santa vs. The Snowman or The Polar Express featuring Tom Hanks, two animated 3-D films playing at the Simons IMAX Theatre at the New England Aquarium. Refer to listings, page 14.

They've Got Legs

They may have given a high-heeled kick to Boston Ballet's beloved version of The Nutcracker (which has been bootlegged over to the Colonial Theatre), but New York's world-famous Rockettes are still faring better in the Hub than their Yankee counterparts could ever hope to. Boston audiences are lining up to catch a glimpse of said Rockettes, Santa Claus and a cast of 50 for the first-ever local appearance of the venerable Radio City Christmas Spectacular, at the Wang Theatre through December 31. The show, which has been packing 'em into Radio City Music Hall since 1933, features everything from the moving "Living Nativity" scene to a mini version of "The Nutcracker" with 31 dancing bears and a 35-foot-tall Christmas tree. But the real stars of the show are the high-kicking Rockettes—whether emerging from Fifth Avenue store windows, hitching themselves and their 72 legs to Santa's sleigh, or wowing the audience as toy soldiers in the classic "Parade of the Wooden Soldiers." Refer to listing, page 18.

Misery Loves Company

If the holidays have you gagging at the thought of endless lines at the mall, visits with annoying relatives and candy-induced toothaches, Boston's got just the cure for the holiday blues: Ryan Landry, the Hub's reigning king of the pop culture parody. This year, the playwright and drag performer, along with his Gold Dust Orphans troupe, is reviving his popular holiday spoof, Who's Afraid of the Virgin Mary?, on weekends in December at Theatre Machine. Cross-stitching the story of the Nativity with Edward Albee's searing classic Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf?, Landry's lampoon details the feuding couple, Mary and Joseph—lost in time, still living in Bethlehem and in a perpetual state of drunken oblivion. Enter the young Kringles, Santa and "the Mrs.," for an alcohol-fueled fight to the death that would make even Richard Burton and Elizabeth Taylor proud. Refer to listing, page 18. P

PANORAMA'S PICK

Of TEA and Taxes by Jordan Salvatoriello

Boston is so steeped in political history that it seems like you can almost hear the cries of protesting colonists still ringing through the city streets. Or was that just the 231st anniversary reenactment of the Boston Tea Party at the Old South Meeting House? Once again, the fierce debate over that ill-fated cargo that originally took place on December 16, 1773 rages at this historic structure. Watch first-hand as a Samuel Adams stand-in bellows the secret signal—"This meeting can do no more to save this country!"—that spurred the Sons of Liberty on to Griffin's Wharf, where they dumped 342 chests of tea into Boston Harbor. The re-creation of this revolutionary milestone by authentic, colonial costume-clad reenactors takes place December 12 from 5:30–7:30 p.m. and is hosted by local WBZ-TV news anchor Jack Williams. Only the first 600 people are allowed inside, so arrive early. Afterwards, a fife and drum concert is held to be cheered on by the tax-hating masses. Refer to listing, page 23.

PANORAMA'S PICK

A Perfect SETTING

by Diana Aramburu

What better way to become an expert in hosting holiday dinner parties than to relive Boston's golden age of entertaining? Patrons can learn from famed Boston icon and philanthropist Isabella Stewart Gardner (1840–1924), who practically wrote the book on the art of entertaining, with the Holiday Table installation at the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum. Complete with a setting for eight on a 16th century Tuscan table and featuring examples of the Venetian china, silver and glassware that Mrs. Gardner culled from her travels, the annual Holiday Table exhibit recreates a famous holiday dinner party hosted by Mrs. Gardner on December 23, 1904. The display also draws on Mrs. Gardner's notes, which describe an elaborate menu, the order in which the courses would be served and the musical entertainment for the evening. As guests to Gardner's home had noted in the past, Gardner always strived for "aesthetic perfection" as the best way to wow her guests. Refer to listing, page 50.

Pucker Gallery, 171 Newbury St., 617-267-9473. Mon–Sat 10 a.m.–5:30 p.m.; Sun 1–5 p.m. Featuring works by Israeli, American and internationally known contemporary artists. Named by the Boston Phoenix as one of the best art galleries in the city: "You can make a case for the Pucker Gallery as Boston's best gallery—though it's really more like a wonderful miniature museum." Special exhibit: Mallory Lake: Mystery and Light.

Robert Klein Gallery, 38 Newbury St., 617-267-7997. Mon–Fri 11 a.m.–5 p.m. Devoted to fine art photography from the 19th century through the present day, the gallery has featured works by such well-known artists as Ansel Adams, Diane Arbus and Sebastiao Salgado. Special exhibits: DW Mellor and Laura Letinsky.

Society of Arts and Crafts, 175 Newbury St., 617-266-1810. Mon–Sat 10 a.m.–6 p.m.; Sun noon–5 p.m. The oldest non-profit crafts organization in the country (more than 100 years old) specializes in contemporary American crafts. The jewelry, furniture, glass and ceramics range from cutting edge to traditional and from functional to sculptural.

Vose Galleries, 238 Newbury St., 617-536-6176. Mon–Fri 8:30 a.m.–5:30 p.m.; Sat 10 a.m.–5:30 p.m. Established in 1841, Vose Galleries—the oldest family-owned art gallery in the United States—specializes in American artists from the 18th, 19th and early 20th centuries.

With its acclaimed company of dancers and over 100 children performing as mice, soldiers, angels and more, this more affordable Nutcracker is a delight.

Radio City Christmas Spectacular, The Wang Theatre, 270 Tremont St., 1-800-447-7400. Performances: Fri at 1, 5 and 8 p.m., Sat at 11 a.m., 2, 5 and 8 p.m., Sun at 1, 4 and 7 p.m., Dec 7, 8, 9, 14, 15 & 16 at 7:30 p.m., Dec 8, 9, 14 & 15 at 2 p.m., Dec 15 at 11 a.m. Tickets: $18.50-74.50. Now in Boston for the first time ever, this holiday extravaganza starring the world-famous Rockettes has been cheered as "A sleighful of magic and fun" by The New York Times. Direct from Radio City Music Hall, this brand-new edition features a host of unforgettable thrills, including the classic "Parade of the Wooden Soldiers," the awe-inspiring "Living Nativity," as well as the Rockettes' all-new tap-dancing showstopper "The Twelve Days of Christmas." Join Santa Claus and a cast of 50 in this memorable Christmas celebration. Refer to story, page 9.

Santaland Diaries, TheatreZone, Chelsea Theatre Works, 189 Winnisimmet St., Chelsea, 617-887-2336. Performances: Thu-Sat at 8 p.m., Sun at 7 p.m. Tickets: $10-18. Inspired by David Sedaris' sardonic and merrily subversive short story, this humorous and acerbic account of working as an elf at Macy's in Manhattan has become an "anti-holiday" cult classic.

Silent Night: A German Christmas, Handel and Haydn Society, Jordan Hall, 30 Gainsborough St., 617-266-3605. Performances Dec 16 at 8 p.m., Dec 19 at 3 p.m. Tickets: $30-60. The great story of Christmastide is retold in this concert through the dancing rhythms and vivid texts of the German 17th century. Composers like Schütz and Pachelbel were among the first to take the lively musical inventions of Italy and apply them to their native language. The result is some of the sweetest and most delightful Christmas music that provides a welcome change from the usual seasonal soundtrack.

Spirit of Boston Holiday Cruise, Commonwealth Pier, 617-748-1450. Lunch cruises daily noon-2 p.m.; dinner cruises Mon-Fri 7-10:30 p.m., Sat 8:30 p.m.-midnight, Sun 6-9:30

TEA Time

by Christopher Wallenberg

Playing a Hollywood legend like Katharine Hepburn would be a tough proposition for most actresses. But for Kate Mulgrew, who is best known for her seven-year run as Captain Janeway on TV's "Star Trek: Voyager," this task is made even more difficult in Matthew Lombardo's one-woman play Tea at Five, which is being staged at the Shubert Theatre December 7–19. That's because Mulgrew must portray the indomitable Hepburn both in her early diva life and also in her twilight years. Fortunately, Mulgrew is up to the task—depicting the strident, 31-year old star, still defiant even though she's been dubbed "box office poison," and later the 76-year-old, aging actress suffering from Parkinson's and reflecting on a life filled with loss. Mulgrew captures the emotional highs and lows of the inimitable, gravel-voiced icon and won raves for her performance during the play's previous engagements off-Broadway and at the American Repertory Theatre's Loeb Drama Center. Refer to listing, page 25.

Boom Room," '70s and '80s disco, new-wave and one-hit wonders; Sun—"Bump," deep house music.

The Rack, 24 Clinton St., 617-725-1051. Open daily, 11:30 a.m.–2 a.m. No cover. This upscale billiards club, restaurant and bar is known for attracting celebrities, as well as Boston's young professional crowd. Live music every night except Saturday; DJs nightly from 10 p.m.–2 a.m.

The Roxy, 279 Tremont St., 617-338-7699. Thu–Sat 10 p.m.–2 a.m. Cover: $10–15. Thu—"The Latin Quarter"; Fri—R&B, hip-hop and reggae; Sat—High-energy house, techno and dance music.

Sophia's, 1270 Boylston St., 617-351-7001. Cover varies. A romantic, upbeat favorite of those who like to salsa. Whether it's on the outdoor upper deck or in the exposed-brick interior, guests keep movin' to Latin beats and live music. Wed–Sat—salsa lessons; Wed—"SalsaBoston.com"; Fri—"Sangria and Salsa"; Sat—DJ Edwin Matos.

Venu, 100 Warrenton St., 617-338-8061. Thu–Sun 11 p.m.–2 a.m. Cover varies. You'll find a highly fashionable Euro crowd at this Theater District club. DJs nightly.

Whiskey Park, Boston Park Plaza Hotel, 64 Arlington St., 617-542-1482. Rande Gerber, husband to Cindy Crawford, opened the latest installment of his Whiskey franchise, a posh addition to the Boston night scene. The 3,500 square-foot space contains two separate bars—one more intimate, and the other a lively lounge.

OPERA

The Turn of the Screw, New England Conservatory, Cutler Majestic Theatre at Emerson College, 219 Tremont St., 1-800-233-3123. Performances Dec 10–12: Fri & Sat at 8 p.m., Sun at 3 p.m. Tickets: $15. Benjamin Britten's The Turn of the Screw, based on the haunting tale by Henry James, is a compelling ghost story dealing with the harsh introduction of children into an adult world.

Without RESERVATION

by Christine Celli

Bad day jobs may be a rite of passage for most struggling actors, but for Sam, who makes ends meet by taking reservations for a hip new Manhattan eatery, it seems life couldn't get much worse. Not so for Boston-bred actor John Kuntz, who tackles all 40 characters in Fully Committed, a one-man comedic play written by Becky Mode that runs at the Lyric Stage Company through December 23. After carving out a niche creating his own one-man-shows, Kuntz has become one of the city's top actors, attracting critical acclaim for everything from playing Shakespearean villains to Beckett's clowns. Sam, on the other hand, is trapped manning a phone line that won't stop ringing, fielding calls from pushy socialites, mafioso, Naomi Campbell's assistant and his dear old dad, who's just hoping Sam will be able to make it home for Christmas. Kuntz may be portraying a struggling actor, but watching him morph from one character to the next, it's clear he'll never become one. Refer to listing below.

recently updated to include new performance pieces, new music and alterations to the sound and lighting design.

Burn This, Huntington Theatre Company, Boston University Theatre, 264 Huntington Ave., 617-266-0800. Performances through Dec 12: Tue & Thu at 7:30 p.m., Wed at 2 & 7:30 p.m., Fri at 8 p.m., Sat at 2 and 8 p.m., Sun at 2 p.m. Tickets: $45–55. In this modern classic by Lanford Wilson, a dancer named Anna is mourning the death of her dance partner, Robbie, when she encounters Robbie's brother Pale bursting into her loft in the middle of the night to retrieve his brother's belongings. Dangerous, sexy, raw and demanding, Pale interrupts the course of Anna's calm existence and leads her into an explosive encounter from which there is no turning back.

Disney's Beauty and the Beast, Fiddlehead Theatre, 109 Central St., Norwood, 781-762-4060. Performances through Dec 12: Fri at 8 p.m., Sat at 2 and 7 p.m., Sun at 2 p.m. Tickets: $18–30. Disney's classic musical brings all your favorite animated characters to life when stage meets screen. Enjoy an enthralling night of theatre with this Tony Award-winning show.

An Evening of Israel Horowitz: It's Called the Sugar Plum and The Indian Wants the Bronx, Alarm Clock Theatre Company, Black Box Theatre, Boston Center for the Arts, 539 Tremont St., 617-933-8600. Performances through Dec 19: Thu–Sat at 8 p.m., Sun at 2 p.m. Tickets: $15. These landmark one-act plays debuted together in 1968, winning Horowitz a Distinguished Play Obie Award for The Indian Wants the Bronx and launching the career of Al Pacino. In It's Called the Sugar Plum, two young people deal with a death by quarreling over whose life has been more changed by an accident. In Indian, the viciousness that lies just below the veneer of "civilization" is highlighted as two young men abuse a for-eigner, just because they can.

Fully Committed, Lyric Stage Company, 140 Clarendon St., 617-437-7172. Performances: Wed & Thu at 7:30 p.m., Fri at 8 p.m., Sat at 4 and 8 p.m., Sun at 3 p.m. Tickets: $19–41. Elliot Norton Award-winning actor John Kuntz stars in this devastatingly funny portrayal of one day in the life of an out-of-work actor who mans the red-hot reservation line at Manhattan's number-one restaurant. Coercion, threats, bribes—desperate callers will stop at nothing to land a prime reservation. Kuntz plays 40 wildly diverse characters in this holiday treat.

Johnny Guitar, SpeakEasy Stage Company, Roberts Theatre, Calderwood Pavilion at the Boston Center for the Arts, 527 Tremont St., 617-933-8600. Performances through Dec 18: Wed–Fri at 8 p.m., Sat at 4 and 8 p.m., Sun at 3 p.m. Tickets: $35–40, seniors and students $30–35. Based on the classic 1954 western starring Joan Crawford, this new musical blends 1950s country, lounge and rock music with a rollicking tale of a feud between a sultry saloonkeeper and a domineering cattle baroness over the control of a small town. Into the melee comes Johnny Guitar, a stranger with a past who sets the stage for a showdown unlike anything the Old West or Boston has ever seen.

The Lion King, The Opera House, 539 Washington St., 617-931-2787. Performances: Tue–Thu at 7:30 p.m., Fri at 8 p.m., Sat at 2 and 8 p.m., Sun at 1 and 6:30 p.m. Tickets: $27.50–132.50. Disney's award-winning blockbuster, based on the hit animated film and helmed by avant-garde director Julie Taymor, christens the newly restored, historic Opera House. Marvel at the breathtaking puppetry, mask and costumes and the bold, vibrant colors as the animals of the Serengeti plain are vividly brought to life through Taymor's incomparable vision, enhanced by Elton John and Tim Rice's Oscar Award-winning score.

Matter Familias, Playwrights' Theatre at Boston University, 949 Commonwealth Ave., 617-358-PLAY. Performances through Dec 19: Thu at 7:30 p.m., Fri & Sat at 8 p.m., Sun at 2 p.m. Tickets: $15–22. What planet is your family from? Katherine wants a son, so she adopts—it's no matter that he's older than she is. Only family matters in this high-energy comedy by critically acclaimed author Ginger Lazarus (Mockba). Everything is relative when your family's genes are a bowl of mixed nuts.

Menopause the Musical, Stuart Street Playhouse, Radisson Hotel, 200 Stuart St., 1-800-447-7400. Performances: Tue–Fri at 8 p.m., Sat at 4 and 8 p.m., Sun at 2 and 5 p.m. Tickets: $42.50. This hilarious celebration of women and "the change" starts with four ladies at a Bloomingdale's lingerie sale who bond over their menopausal ailments—memory loss, brain skips, hot flashes, night sweats, not enough sex, too much sex and more. The joyful musical parodies 28 classic Baby Boomer songs.

Permanent Collection, New Repertory Theatre, 54 Lincoln St., Newton Highlands, 617-928-9834. Performances through Dec 12: Wed at 2 and 7 p.m., Thu & Fri at 8 p.m., Sat at 4:30 and 8:30 p.m., Sun at 3 and 7:30 p.m. Tickets: $24–48. This New England premiere written by Thomas Gibbons and directed by Sam Weisman tells the story of the Morris Foundation, whose art collection has flourished in quiet, suburban obscurity, unchanged on the walls for 50 years. But when Morris' will leaves control to an African-American university, the new executive director discovers the stored African art treasures of the collection and demands changes in the exhibits, forcing a clash between social justice and artistic vision.

The Price, Merrimack Repertory Theatre, 50 East Merrimack St., Lowell, 978-454-3926. Performances through Dec 12: Wed–Fri at 8 p.m., Sat at 4:30 and 8:30 p.m., Sun at 2 and 7 p.m. Tickets: $29. It's New York, 1965, and two estranged brothers—one a retiring cop, the other a successful surgeon—engage in a heated sibling rivalry while negotiating the price of their parents' estate with a charming old furniture appraiser. In Arthur Miller's timeless play, the brothers are brought face to face with the loyalties and yearnings that shaped their lives.

The Provok'd Wife, American Repertory Theatre, Loeb Drama Center, 64 Brattle St., Cambridge, 617-547-8300. Performances: Tue–Thu at 7:30 p.m., Fri at 8 p.m., Sat at 2 and 8 p.m., Sun at 2 and 7:30 p.m. Tickets: $36–72. The Brutes have a terrible relationship. Lady Brute married for money. Sir John for sex—and now he has been driven to drink and she to dreams of adultery. Flanked by a squadron of drunken rakes, debauched aristocrats and lascivious French maids, the Brutes turn London into a battlefield of love and infidelity, armed to the teeth with their dazzling, sharp-honed wit. First staged in 1697, The Provok'd Wife is the crowning glory of the English Restoration.

Shear Madness, Charles Playhouse Stage II, 74 Warrenton St., 617-426-5225. Performances: Tue–Fri at 8 p.m., Sat at 6:30 and 9:30 p.m., Sun at 3 and 7:30 p.m. Tickets: $34–50. Boston's hilarious whodunnit where the audience takes a stab at catching the killer. Become an armchair sleuth in the longest-running non-musical play in U.S. history.

Seussical The Musical, Boston Children's Theatre, C. Walsh Theatre at Suffolk University 55 Temple St., 617-424-6634. Performances begin Dec 11: Fri and Sat at 2 p.m. Tickets: $10–22. Gertrude McPhuzz? Maisie? Horton? The Grinch? Cindy Lou Who? Who are these creatures? Surely you know The Cat in the Hat and the many other wonderful, witty, whimsical characters of the greatest Thing-Thinker of all time, Dr. Seuss. This smashingly entertaining Broadway musical by Lynn Ahrens and Stephen Flaherty will be the highlight of your holidays.

Tea At Five, The Shubert Theatre, 265 Tremont St., 1-800-447-7400. Performances Dec 7–19: Tue–Fri at 8 p.m. (except Dec 8 at 7 p.m.), Sat at 2 and 8 p.m., Sun at 1 and 7 p.m. Tickets: $33–58. Kate Mulgrew, who played Captain Janeway on UPN's "Star Trek: Voyager," stars as legendary actress Katharine Hepburn in this intimate look at the Hollywood icon at home in her Fenwick Estate in Old Saybrook, Connecticut. Mulgrew portrays the four-time Academy Award winner at opposite ends of her peerless career and reveals the indomitable Hepburn as an undeniable talent that is equal parts witty and fiery.

The Value of Names, The Theatre Cooperative, 277 Broadway, Somerville, 617-625-1300. Performances through Dec 11: Fri & Sat at 8 p.m., Sun at 3 p.m. Tickets: $20, students & seniors $15. On a warm summer day in California, an aging actor finds out his daughter wants to change her name. When we discover that her father was black-listed during the McCarthy era and who black-listed him, the value of names becomes achingly apparent.

HOLIDAY GIFT GUIDE

Find that perfect holiday gift for everyone on your list right here in the Hub

by Christine Celli

You've made your list and you've checked it twice. Now you just need to decide what to buy—which, we agree, is the hardest part. If you already have some gift ideas in mind, Boston boasts several malls, outdoor shopping areas and a slew of quirky shops and department stores. We encourage you to take a stroll through historic Faneuil Hall's popular outdoor market; bargain shop at off-price retailers in Downtown Crossing like H&M, T.J. Maxx and Filene's Basement; and peruse the Shops at the Prudential Center for popular department stores like Lord & Taylor and Saks Fifth Avenue. For higher-end items, try Neiman Marcus and Gucci at Copley Place or hit the CambridgeSide Galleria for more mainstream chains, from J Crew to Best Buy. For the eccentric to the eclectic, from Newbury Street to Harvard Square, Boston is a sprawling shopping mecca and we've found the hottest spots for the coolest gifts. So if you're hoping to head home this holiday season with a unique slice of Beantown and don't know where to start, our gift guide has the solution for everyone on your list!

Parents

MOM

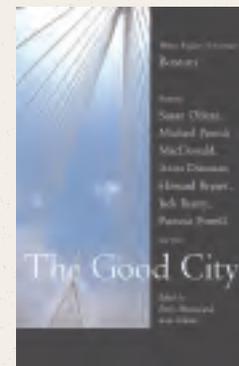

We know moms aren't supposed to choose favorites, but that doesn't mean you can't try to persuade her. Since most moms claim to love functional gifts above all else, consider a handcrafted mahogany or cherry wood bowl (A) made in Vermont. These teak or clarendon bowls are beautiful, durable and practical and are available in a variety of sizes (from $25–289) at Bowl and Board (1063 Mass. Ave., Cambridge, 617-661-0350). If you need to step it up a notch, we know just where to send you. The elegant, handcrafted jewelry at John Lewis (97 Newbury St., 1-800-266-4101) is the best way to spoil mom rotten. The store's unique array of 18k gold bands soldered together into one breathtaking piece (B), with or without stones, is sure to be the talk of the season. For more affordable items that still inspire awe, surprise her with an open-forged sterling silver bracelet ($50–119) or 18k gold-hammered circle earrings ($91).

DAD

Whether dear old dad enjoys travelling as much as you do, or just likes to learn about history and far off places from the comfort of home, head to the The Globe Corner Bookstore (28 Church St., Cambridge, 617-497-6277), which boasts one of the largest selections of travel guidebooks, maps, literature and more, right in Harvard Square. For books about the Hub, the store's staff recommends The Good City: Writers Explore 21st Century Boston ($11) (C), a collection of essays by local writers. If he's a sports fan, we suggest The Curse of the Bambino by Boston Globe sports scribe Dan Shaughnessy ($14). Now that the Red Sox have finally won the World Series, he may enjoy learning what all the fuss was about. When he's ready to start globetrekking, send him out in style with a pair of wingtips or oxfords from Allen-Edmonds (36 Newbury St., 617-247-3363) (D), world-famous for its expertly crafted shoes.

Kids & Teens

KIDS

If you have any new moms on your list, they'll be thrilled by the one-of-a-kind gifts available for wee ones from Mulberry Road (46 Gloucester St., 617-859-5861). Still in its infancy itself, Mulberry boasts hand-crafted toys such as the brightly colored wooden My First Train ($34) (E) and colorful knitware—from monogrammed sweaters to hats—created by local designers.

Don't let the name fool you. Although Curious George paraphernalia is plentiful (stuffed animals, $13.95) (F), Curious George Goes to Wordsworth (1 JFK St., Cambridge, 617-498-0062) in Harvard Square offers plenty of other options as well. Its two floors are chock full of stuff for newborns through teenagers, from Beatrix to Harry Potter. You can even find favorites from your own childhood.

TEENS

Shopping for teenagers is never an easy task, so skip the daunting department stores and head to Urban Outfitters (361 Newbury St., 617-236-0088 and 11 JFK St., Cambridge, 617-864-0070), home to more affordable (and hip) clothing and accessories. And for the latest in DVDs, CDs and video games, just stroll across the street to the Virgin Megastore (360 Newbury St., 617-896-0950). But if you really want to make the teen in your life think you're the coolest ever, head to Diesel (G), the Italian jean designer that has had trendy hipsters going gaga over its denimware since Brooke Shields outgrew her Calvins. The clothing line just opened a new store hocking its latest designs at 339 Newbury St. (617-424-6555). But just down the way at 160 Newbury (617-437-7344) is a privately owned franchise that sets itself apart from the flagship store by selling only hard-to-find or out-of-stock products from the company's line.

WOMEN

Perhaps a lady's favorite gift comes in a tiny box with a hefty price tag, but jewelry isn't the only way to show you care. Since we know picking through fashion trends is almost as frightening as trying to guess her size, we suggest skipping clothes altogether and heading to Lush (166 Newbury St., 617-375-5874). This popular U.K.-based company creates the freshest-possible beauty products made from all natural ingredients. Its soaps and bath treats resemble baked goods (H) and come in pre-wrapped gift boxes that range in price from $10–200. If your best gal really had her heart set on clothes, consider Helen's Leather (110 Charles St., 617-742-2077), which specializes in Western-style clothing, including classic, handmade Lucchese cowboy boots ($395 and up) (I). And for something truly unique, try the International Poster Gallery (205 Newbury St., 617-375-0076) (K), which sells original vintage posters, considered to be one of the fastest-growing areas of art collecting. Choose a poster advertising her favorite hobby or an art nouveau or art deco travel poster and prove you know what she likes with a gift that may even appreciate in value.

MEN

Thanks to the simplicity of men's fashion, buying clothes for your best man often requires little more than picking out a new pair of khakis. Ladies who are hoping to help their man's work attire look more Clark Gable than Clark Kent should try Simon's (220 Clarendon St., 1-877-266-2345) (J), which has been in the business of dressing Boston's men in the latest fashions for more than 100 years and sells finely tailored suits at reasonable prices. For something more hip, designer du jour Marc Jacobs has just opened a boutique (81 Newbury St., 617-425-0707) selling the latest from its >> popular men's line. Or you could stick with casualware by heading to the Levi's Store (The Shops at Prudential Center, 800 Boylston St., 617-375-9010). And since punctuality is the best way to make a good impression in life, it's hard to go wrong with a timepiece from Alpha Omega (The Shops at Prudential Center, 800 Boylston St., 617-424-9030; 1380 Mass. Ave., Cambridge, 617-864-1227) (L). America's watch and diamond specialist offers watches from all the popular designers, from Calvin Klein to Fossil, as well as its own precision watches and high-end time pieces from century-old watch manufacturers including A. Lange and Sohne. If your guy prefers toys, try Bang & Olufsen (30 Newbury St., 617-262-4949), purveyors of innovative, high-end gadgets, including the Beoplayer 2, a lightweight, pocket-sized MP3 player and headphones that finally gets comfort and sound quality in one tiny package.

Pets

Let's face it: a lot of us love our pets more than the people in our lives. To pamper your furry friend right, head to Polka Dog Bakery (256 Shawmut Ave., 617-338-5155) (M). This unique pet bakery and boutique proffers the finest homemade treats with no salt, sugar or preservatives to muck up your dog's health. You can purchase your pup a lunch box filled with pizza or peanut butter flavored treats for $12, or a treat tin filled with after-dinner mints made from parsley and mint for $24. The boutique also offers playfully designed leashes, collars and a Polka Dog calendar ($24) that benefits the Animal Rescue League and is filled with black and white photographs of man's best friend.

Grab Bag

Whether it's for a Christmas stocking, a Yankee swap or something for a friend or co-worker, we have a ton of smaller gift ideas for all ages and interests.

Founded in 1883, Levitt and Pierce (1316 Mass Ave., Cambridge, 617-547-0576) is primarily known as a tobacconist, but the historic shop has long been popular with Harvard University folk as much for its pipes and cigars as for its array of chess boards ($20 and up) (N) and game supplies, including satirical playing cards depicting politicians and antique board games. For the hard-to-buy-for, Levenger (The Shops at Prudential Center, 800 Boylston St., 617-536-3434) offers items that are equal parts useful and unique, with especially good gift ideas for bookworms, from simple writing implements ($28 and up) and leather journals ($34 and up) to a luxurious, deluxe leather Scrabble set ($2,499) (O) for the person who has everything. Gift sets from Sephora (Shops at the Prudential Center, 800 Boylston St., 617-262-4200) provide the perfect solution for that emergency, last-minute gift or grab bag item. Try the Shea Travel Treasures Set ($32), a travel bag filled with bath products from France's L'Occitane en Provence, or Philosophy's Kiss Me Trio ($25) of lip glosses in sugar cookie, peppermint patty and the unscented yummy red. Since making your home pretty seems even more popular these days than making ourselves pretty, local interior decorator Susan Sargent's new book The Comfort of Color ($30) (P) makes a great gift for nesters hooked on TLC's "Trading Spaces" and its ilk. Sargent even owns a local boutique (132 Newbury St., 617-262-2226) that sells colorful items from holiday mugs and pottery to throw pillows and welcome mats that will inspire even the novice decorator to kick-up the festive feel of their home during the holidays.

fulfill every shopper's dream. The best way to grasp the city's diversity is simply to explore. The following pages describe the various shopping areas and provide a taste of what they offer.

NEWBURY STREET

One of the most popular shopping areas in the city, Newbury Street is the home of exclusive designer boutiques and high-end fashion shops, numerous art galleries, interesting restaurants and cafes, beauty salons and spas, and unusual gift and jewelry shops.

Akris, 16 Newbury St., 617-536-6225. Mon-Sat 10 a.m.-6 p.m. Founded in Switzerland in 1922 by the Kriemler family, this design house is the only true couture house outside of Paris and Milan that has distinguished itself for its creative, elegant and modern fashions. Its designer collection for women is comprised of elegant, understated suits, coats, dresses and a selection of evening wear.

Allen-Edmonds, 36 Newbury St., 617-247-3363. Mon-Sat 9:30 a.m.-6 p.m.; Sun noon-5 p.m. Step out in luxurious style with Allen-Edmonds' collections of wing tips, capped toes and slip-on kilties and tassels. This world-class men's footwear retailer, famous for its 212-step construction process, features shoes made of top-quality leather and all-natural materials. Available in 164 different size and width combinations.

Cartier, 40 Newbury St., 617-262-3300. Mon-Sat 10 a.m.-6 p.m. If diamonds are forever, the House of Cartier is timeless. With more than 150 years of experience as one of the world's leading luxury goods companies, Cartier is a symbol of prestige, glamour, innovation and quality. This premier jeweler offers a dazzling display of diamonds, jewelry and accessories, including timepieces, silver, crystal, perfume, designer pens and leather accessories.

Chanel Boutique, 5 Newbury St., on the ground floor of the Ritz-Carlton Hotel, 617-859-0055. Mon-Sat 10 a.m.-6 p.m. Modeled after the famed Chanel Boutique in Paris, the Boston outpost of this storied franchise offers a range of Chanel products, including a line of clothing designed by Karl Lagerfeld, as well as shoes, accessories, handbags and fragrances.

Ermenegildo Zegna, 39 Newbury St., 617-424-9300. Mon-Sat 10 a.m.-6 p.m.; Sun noon-5 p.m. Originally a small, family-run textile business transformed into a world leader in elegant men's clothing, this Italian design house has focused passionately on quality since its founding in 1910. Today, Zegna is a fourth-generation, family-run enterprise that boasts a tradition of designing and producing the finest in menswear by utilizing exclusive fabric designs. Zegna is also known for its vast, first-rate necktie selection.

The Hempest, 207 Newbury St., 617-421-9944. Mon-Sat 11 a.m.-7 p.m.; Sun noon-6 p.m. The Hempest offers quite possibly the largest selection of hemp clothing and accessories in the country. www.hempest.com.

John Fluevog, 302 Newbury St., 617-266-1079. Mon-Sat 11 a.m.-7 p.m.; Sun 1-6 p.m. This funky footwear retailer features shoes created by the maverick designer. His highly original creations range from mind-bending platforms to the classic black boot and his tried-and-true "Angels," placing him on the cutting edge of footwear design for both men and women. The Newbury Street locale is the only place in Boston to find a wide range of his styles.

John Lewis, Inc., 97 Newbury St., 617-266-6665. Tue-Sat 11 a.m.-6 p.m. John Lewis has been creating jewelry of imaginative design in Boston's Back Bay for more than 30 years. Using only solid precious metals and natural stones, he makes the jewelry in his own workshop and signs it with the unique John Lewis trademark. His aim is "to make jewelry at a reasonable price, of excellent workmanship and uncommon beauty." Jewelry designed by John Lewis is creative, professional and impressive—a statement of good taste and a constant delight to the wearer.

A Knit and Needlepoint Store by Mary Jo Cole, 11 Newbury St. (between Arlington and Berkeley streets), 617-536-9338; fax 617-536-9333. Mon-Sat 9 a.m.-5 p.m.; Sun by chance. The fine art of

FANEUIL HALL MARKETPLACE

Quincy Market, the centerpiece of Faneuil Hall Marketplace, was an early American marketplace filled with food and produce vendors. Now it houses countless stores, restaurants and snack counters. The North and South Markets are home to more than 125 stores where shoppers indulge in everything from jewelry and clothes to flowers and art.

Bill Rodgers Running Center, 353 North Market Place, Faneuil Hall Marketplace, 617-723-5612. Mon-Sat 10 a.m.-8:45 p.m.; Sun noon-6 p.m. Owned by four-time Boston Marathon winner and legend Bill Rodgers, this footwear retailer is committed to helping runners of all levels choose the most suitable shoes, not just the bestselling or most expensive. Features include a vast selection of shoes, apparel and accessories along with an experienced, knowledgeable staff.

Faneuil Hall Heritage Shop, Zero Faneuil Hall Square, Stall #13, basement of historic Faneuil Hall, 617-723-1776. Mon-Sat 10 a.m.-7 p.m.; Sun 11 a.m.-6 p.m. Rediscover a true Boston landmark. Opened in 1973, when its only neighbors were meat and produce wholesalers, the shop continues to offer quality colonial reproductions in pewter as well as scrimshaw, blown glass, Dedham pottery, hand-hammered copper weathervanes, prints, and sterling and gold charms of historic Boston locales.

Marketplace Center, located between Faneuil Hall and the Waterfront. Twenty-four distinctive shops surround an open court known as the Exedra, where you will always find a wide range of unusual pushcarts and entertainment events unique to this wonderful area. Within walking distance are literally hundreds of other shops, restaurants, pubs and nightspots. SEE LOCATOR #7 ON CENTER MAP.

CAMBRIDGE/HARVARD SQUARE

Here's a Tip...

It happens all the time. A bellhop carries your bag, a bartender pours you a cold brew or a taxi driver delivers you to your destination. It's at the end of these momentous occasions when that awkward moment of uncertainty arrives. How much should you tip? Here's a quick list to ease the suffering of handing over too much or too little.

- Waiter/Waitress 18-20% of bill
- Bartender 10-15% of bar bill
- Coat Check $1 for one or two coats
- Airport Skycap $1 or more per bag
- Taxi Driver 15% of fare/no less than $1
- Hairdresser 15% of bill
- Hotel Concierge $2-3 (quick help & info)
$5 (detailed information)
- Hotel Bellhop $1-2 for carrying luggage
- Hotel Chambermaid $2 per day. Usually left at the end of your stay.

STYLE and Substance

by Scott Roberto

Sleek, clean and modern—these are the hallmarks of Art Deco, an international style that originated in Europe and influenced nearly every facet of art and design in the first half of the 20th century. Many icons of the age, from Coco Chanel's "little black dress" to the skyscrapers of Manhattan, are still renowned today. So it's no surprise that the Museum of Fine Arts has installed the travelling exhibit Art Deco: 1910-1939 in its showcase Gund Gallery. Temporarily transformed into a Jazz Age wonderland, the gallery houses more than 240 objects, including paintings, textiles, photographs, posters, furniture and pieces of jewelry. Many of these items boast such ubiquitous Art Deco motifs as slender, stylized plant and animal forms; exotic African, Egyptian and Asian touches; and geometric, streamlined patterns based on the rapidly developing industrial innovations of the era. Only the sobering reality of World War II could derail the dazzling glamour of the style, which, judging by the popularity of this show, still fascinates to this day. Refer to listing, page 50.

Hitting the ICE

by Diana Aramburu

Feeling cold? It's finally happened—Old Man Winter is here icing the city's streets and dusting snow atop its trees. But in Boston, that's no cause for grief thanks to the Frog Pond, a 16,000-square-foot ice skating surface nestled on Boston Common. While in the summer months, the Pond features a wading pool complete with a 70-foot-high spray fountain, in winter it's transformed into Boston's own version of the famous Rockefeller Center ice rink. A popular oasis for skaters young and old, this outdoor rink won't let you down, remaining functional even on those atypical warm days thanks to a refrigeration system that keeps you spinning on your skates in temperatures up to 55 degrees. But if the usual frigid temps are in play, the Frog Pond has just the cure: concessions and a heated rest area where you can warm your toes. Bring or rent blades for $7 and, as Mayor Menino advises, "come for fresh air, healthy outdoor exercise and the camaraderie of sharing the ice with others." Refer to listing, page 56.

NEIGHBORHOODS

Boston Proper, the area visitors frequent the most, is defined by seven adjoining communities, many of which were created out of the landfill projects of the 1800s: Back Bay, Beacon Hill, Chinatown, the Fenway, the Financial District, the North End and the South End. But the city's limits stretch out to include several more residential neighborhoods with unique cultures and personalities of their own. And just north of the Charles River, "T"—accessible from Boston, are the cities of Cambridge and Somerville, which teem with academia, culture and entertainment options that rival those of the Hub. The following is a summary of some of Greater Boston's most prominent areas.

Back Bay. Once a low-lying harbor basin flooded at high tide, the Back Bay was transformed by the massive landfill projects of the 19th century. The project took some 50 years to complete, but the result was one of the most beautiful neighborhoods in the world. Marked by its regal brownstones, tree-lined thoroughfares and alphabetically arranged street names, the Back Bay is home to Newbury Street ("the East Coast's own Rodeo Drive"), Copley Square and the Boston Public Library.

Beacon Hill. The Hub's reputation as one of the most European of American cities is most likely earned by the neighborhood of Beacon Hill. Louisburg Square takes you back to London circa 1600, and the area's narrow cobblestone streets, brownstones and gas-lit street-lamps all add to its "old world" charm. Beacon Hill boasts the quaint shops of Charles Street, the nearby Boston Common and the Massachusetts State House with its eye-catching golden dome.

Cambridge. This city on the other side of the Charles River is home to two world-renowned institutions of higher learning: Harvard University, the oldest college in the country, and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. A bastion of American liberalism, Cambridge is also known for its diverse squares—Harvard, Central, Kendall, Porter and Inman—which boast a flock of cultural, historic, shopping and dining attractions.

Charlestown. This neighborhood's legacy dates back to the Revolutionary War, when it was the site of the Battle of Bunker Hill.

The battle is memorialized by the Bunker Hill Monument, a towering white obelisk overlooking the harbor. Charlestown also hosts the U.S.S. Constitution, which is docked at the Boston National Historical Park. Long considered an insular Irish community, Charlestown has grown more diverse thanks to real estate developers and the opening of several popular bars and restaurants, such as Todd English's landmark eatery, Olives.

Chinatown. Once regarded as a pale version of the Chinatowns in New York and San Francisco, Boston's focal point for Asian and Asian-American culture contains a wealth of shops selling Asian imports and groceries, as well as countless eateries offering regional cuisine and late hours, making it one of the best places to go for an after-midnight meal.

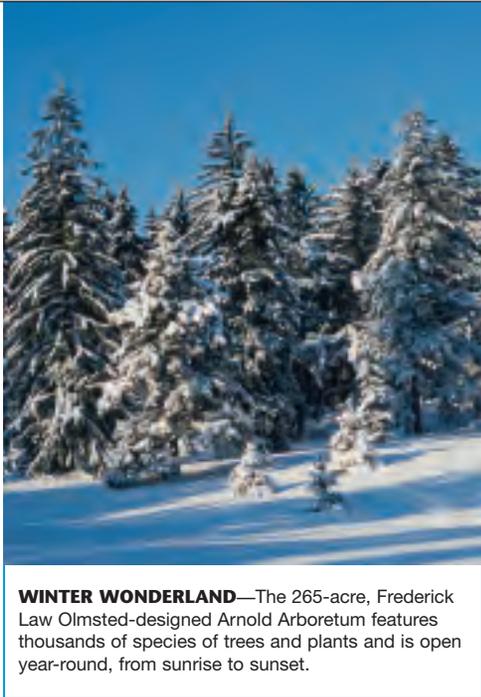

Downtown/Financial District. One of Boston's most active urban centers, this area encompasses Government Center, the Financial District, Downtown Crossing and the newly dubbed Ladder District, an area known for its wide array of bars and restaurants that cater to the after-work and pre-theater crowds. Downtown Crossing is a blend of commerce and culture, with street vendors and shopping at department stores like Macy's and the world-famous Filene's Basement standing alongside historical sites such as the Old South Meeting House and Old City Hall. Government Center, home to the current City Hall and its surrounding Plaza, lies adjacent to historic Faneuil Hall Marketplace.

The Fenway. Named for the Fens, the green parkland that winds its way through the neighborhood, the Fenway is home to Fenway Park, the legendary ballpark that hosts Beantown's beloved, Bambino-cursed Red Sox. It is also a mecca of clubs (on Lansdowne Street), sports bars and restaurants. Several of the city's prominent cultural institutions, including the Museum of Fine Arts, the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum and Symphony Hall, are located nearby.

Jamaica Plain. One of the city's most diverse areas, "J.P." contains thriving Latin-American, African-American, Irish and gay communities and is home to Jamaica Pond and Arnold Arboretum, two of the city's finest green spaces. Once a "country resort" area for Boston Brahmins, the neighborhood boasts striking 19th-century mansions on the streets closest to the Pond and eclectic shops and restaurants along Centre Street.

North End. Boston's own "Little Italy," the North End's uniquely European character is exemplified by narrow streets, cobblestone sidewalks and brick rowhouses. Although gentrification has changed the face of the neighborhood, the North End is still home to the best Italian dining in the city. The Old North Church, the Paul Revere House and Copp's Hill Burial Ground—all of which are stops on the Freedom Trail—are located here.

South Boston. "Southie," as this neighborhood is commonly called, is a community bordered by Boston Harbor, the Financial District and Dorchester. The popular recreational spot Castle Island is home to historic Fort Independence. The Fort Point Channel area is known as an artists' enclave and is also home to the Boston Children's Museum, while the fast-developing Seaport District, including Fish Pier, contains seafood restaurants, the World Trade Center Boston and the newly completed Boston Convention and Exhibition Center. But the heart of Southie is its boisterous Irish community, which hosts a renowned annual St. Patrick's Day parade along Broadway.

WINTER WONDERLAND—The 265-acre, Frederick Law Olmsted-designed Arnold Arboretum features thousands of species of trees and plants and is open year-round, from sunrise to sunset.

Somerville. Just northeast of Cambridge, the city of Somerville has long attracted students, artists and musicians with its low rents, proximity to Tufts and Harvard universities and easy access to the T, adding a creative flair to this traditionally blue-collar area. Activity focuses around two commercial centers, Union and Davis squares, which feature a wide array of ethnic restaurants, cafes, galleries and shops.

South End. Every city has a neighborhood that is a locus for cutting-edge art and culture. In New York, it's SoHo. In San Francisco, it's the Haight. In Boston, it's the South End. Brimming with art galleries, unique shops, bookstores and some of the hottest restaurants in the city, the South End is definitely where it's at.

SIGHTS OF INTEREST

Adams National Historical Park, 1250 Hancock St., Quincy, eight miles south of Boston, 617-770-1175. Take the "T" to the Quincy Center stop on the Red Line. Visitor Center is open, Tue–Fri from 10 a.m.–4 p.m. Trolley tours and sites closed 'til spring. Tickets: $3; children (under 16) free. This oft-overlooked historical gem offers insight into the lives of U.S. presidents John Adams and son John Quincy Adams. Tours stop at the birthplaces of both presidents, as well as "The Old House," which was home to five generations of the Adams family. Stop by the Visitor Center to register and purchase tickets.

Arnold Arboretum, 125 Arborway, Jamaica Plain, 617-524-1718. Grounds open year-round, sunrise to sunset. Free admission. Visitor Center open Mon–Fri 9 a.m.–4 p.m.; Sat 10 a.m.–4 p.m.; Sun noon–4 p.m. This 265-acre tree sanctuary designed by Emerald Necklace architect Frederick Law Olmsted opened in 1872. Now a National Historic Landmark, the arboretum and its gardens contain more than 7,000 varieties of trees, shrubs and flowers, all labeled for your perusal.

Boston Athenaeum, 10½ Beacon St., 617-227-0270. Public tours: Tue & Thu at 3 p.m. Reservations required. One of the oldest and most distinguished private libraries in the United States, the Athenaeum was founded in 1807. For nearly half a century, it was the unchallenged center of intellectual life in Boston, and by 1851 it had become one of the five largest libraries in the country.

Boston Public Garden, bordered by Arlington, Charles, Beacon and Boylston streets. Open daily dawn to dusk. Established in 1837, the Public Garden is the nation's first public botanical garden. Its 24 acres are filled with scenic and diverse greenery, as well as sculptures that include one commemorating the popular children's book Make Way for Ducklings. Other fixtures include the Lagoon, home to the famed Swan Boats from April through Labor Day, and a suspension bridge designed as a miniature replica of the Brooklyn Bridge.

Boston Harbor Islands National Recreation Area, all islands are within 4–10 miles of downtown. Ferries and water taxis depart from Long Wharf, and schedules can be obtained from Boston Harbor Cruises at 617-227-4321. www.bostonislands.com. Some islands have limited access during the fall and winter, call for more information. This national recreation area contains a variety of small islands situated within the Greater Boston shoreline. The islands are rich in natural and cultural resources and places where you can explore tide pools; walk through a Civil War-era fort; climb a lighthouse; hike lush trails and salt marshes; camp under the stars; or relax while fishing, picnicking or swimming.

Boston Public Library, 700 Boylston St., Copley Square, 617-536-5400. Mon–Thu 9 a.m.–9 p.m.; Fri & Sat 'til 5 p.m.; Sun 1–5 p.m. Free admission. Art & Architecture tours offered Mon at 2:30 p.m., Tue & Thu at 6 p.m., Fri & Sat at 11 a.m. The first publicly supported municipal library in the world hosts one million visitors a year who come to view this architectural masterpiece and its collection of more than five million books. Film festivals, exhibits and children's programs run throughout the year.

Boston Tea Party Ship and Museum, Congress Street Bridge, 617-338-1773. Temporarily closed due to fire damage. This replica of the famous ship, being repaired off-site, remains an indelible token of patriotism on the site of the "single most important event leading to the American Revolution." On a cold evening in 1773, a group of colonists led by the Sons of Liberty snuck aboard a British ship and threw hundreds of chests of tea into Boston Harbor in protest of taxation without representation.

Bunker Hill Pavilion, Boston National Historical Park Visitors Center, Charlestown, 617-242-5601. Located yards from the U.S.S. Constitution. Visitor center and bookstore open daily 9 a.m.–5 p.m. Monument open daily from 9 a.m.–4:30 p.m. Free admission. Check out "Whites of Their Eyes," a dramatic multimedia presentation of the Battle of Bunker Hill, one of the first major battles of the Revolution. Or climb the nearby Bunker Hill Monument, a 221-foot granite obelisk.

Charles River Esplanade, 617-635-4305. This tree-lined park along the Charles River basin is a popular spot for leisurely strolls and picnics as well as recreational activities. Sports enthusiasts are drawn to the 17-mile biking, jogging and walking path between the Museum of Science and Watertown, while others flock to the water to sail, windsurf, canoe or kayak. The nearby DCR Hatch Shell frequently hosts concerts and films, as well as the famous Boston Pops concerts.

Custom House Tower, 3 McKinley Square, 617-310-6300. Free historical tours daily at 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. (no 10 a.m. tour on Sat). Boston's first skyscraper, the Custom House stands high over Boston Harbor as one of the city's most impressive landmarks. Crowned by its distinctive clock tower and restored with modern luxuries, the building epitomizes the preservation of Boston's historic architecture. Today, the Marriott Corporation operates this landmark.

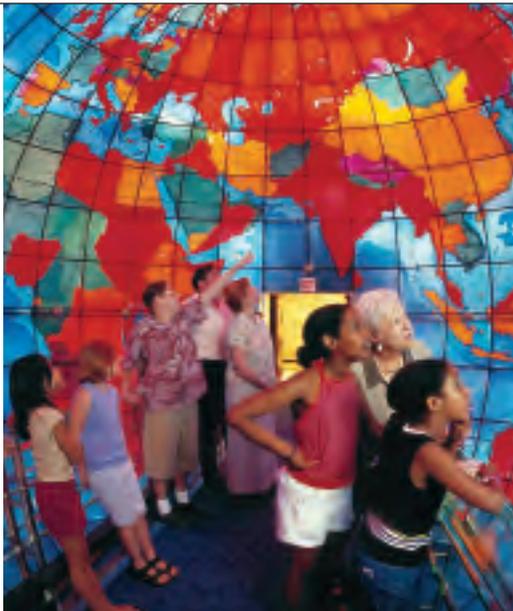

Emerald Necklace, parks throughout Boston, 617-635-7487. Free guided tours by appointment only. This world-famous string of parks that runs through the city was the brainchild of renowned landscape architect Frederick Law Olmsted and took almost 20 years to complete. The six green spaces—Back Bay Fens, Riverway, Olmsted Park, Jamaica Pond, Arnold Arboretum and Franklin Park—stretch five miles from the Charles River to Dorchester and make up over 1,000 acres of parkland. The necklace is listed on the National Register of Historic Places. Although not officially part of the Emerald Necklace, Boston Common and the Public Garden are sometimes considered the starting points, and are connected to the Necklace by the Commonwealth Avenue Mall.

The First Church of Christ Scientist, 175 Huntington Ave., 617-450-3790. Services: Sun at 10 a.m. The original Mother Church built in 1894 is at the heart of the Christian Science Center, situated on 14 acres in the Back Bay. The Romanesque structure is made from New Hampshire granite with stained glass windows illustrating Biblical events. Also see listing for the Mary Baker Eddy Library.

Forest Hills Cemetery, 95 Forest Hills Ave., 617-524-0128. Open daily from 8:30 a.m. to dusk. Created in 1848, this cemetery serves as the final resting place of Eugene O'Neill, Anne Sexton, e.e. cummings, William Lloyd Garrison and former Boston Celtic Reggie Lewis. The 275 acres of twisting paths also contain sculptural treasures, an arboretum, a "library" of life stories and an open-air museum.

Harrison Gray Otis House, 141 Cambridge St., 617-227-3956. Tours: Wed-Sun 11 a.m.-4:30 p.m. every 30 minutes. Admission: $5; seniors $4; students $2.50; free to kids, Historic New England members and Boston residents. Built in 1796 for Harrison Gray Otis and his wife, Sally, this grand mansion is a brilliant example of high-style Federal elegance. Tours offer insight into the social, business and family life of the post-Revolution American elite.

John F. Kennedy National Historic Site, 83 Beals St., Brookline, 617-566-7937. Closed for the winter. This modest frame house is the well-preserved 1917 birthplace and childhood home of the 35th president of the United States, and also the first home shared by the president's father and mother, Joseph P. and Rose Fitzgerald Kennedy. Includes a collection of household furnishings, photo-

John Hancock Tower, 200 Clarendon St., 617-572-6429. Rising 62 stories into the sky, this I.M. Pei-designed, sliver-of-glass skyscraper is New England's tallest building and is considered by many to be one of the most beautiful skyscrapers in the world. The building houses the headquarters of its namesake, insurance giant John Hancock Financial. Unfortunately, the observatory on the 60th floor was closed after September 11, 2001.

Longfellow National Historic Site, 105 Brattle St., Cambridge, 617-876-4491. Closed for the winter. This 1759 Georgian mansion was home to Henry Wadsworth Longfellow from 1837 to 1882 and a central gathering place for writers and artists in the 19th century. It also served as George Washington's headquarters during the siege of Boston in 1775-76. Original furnishings, books and art from around the world are on display.

The Mary Baker Eddy Library, 200 Mass. Ave., 617-450-7000. Open Tue-Sun from 10 a.m.-5 p.m., Thu & Fri 'til 9 p.m. Admission: $5; seniors, students with ID and youth (6-17) $3; children (under 6) and members free. Home to the world-famous Mapparium, a three-story stained-glass globe depicting the world as it existed in 1934, which guests can walk through. Visitors to the library can follow Mary Baker Eddy's quest for insight and embark on one of their own through interactive exhibits in the Quest Gallery, or try out a "desk job" at the Pulitzer Prize-winning Christian Science Monitor.

The skating pavilion sits atop a wooded hill in the middle of what was once an Italian garden designed by Charles A. Platt in 1901.

PROVINCETOWN

Despite being bordered by the Atlantic Ocean on three sides, P-Town (as the locals call it) at the very tip of Cape Cod is far more than just the sum of its beaches and shores. Established in 1727 as the fishing and commerce center of the Cape, the area has grown to be culturally diverse, from the Portuguese fisherman that were early settlers to its current reputation as a popular vacation spot for the gay and lesbian community. P-Town offers visitors top-notch dramatic arts, galleries and a hopping nightlife scene during the summer months. And yes, it also has some of the Northeast's most spectacular beaches.

If you go, start your day with a stroll and some people watching on Commercial Street. The area's main drag is lined with eclectic shops, candy stores and, well, drag queens! For a high-speed tour of the nearby beaches and the famous dunes, check out Art's Dune Tours (Commercial and Standish Streets, 1-800-894-1951). The one-hour tour takes you through the National Seashore Park and by the dune shacks, once inhabited by shipwrecked sailors and later by literary figures such as Jack Kerouac and Eugene O'Neill.

THE REDCOATS ARE COMING—Men costumed as British loyalists march in formation along the Freedom Trail near Faneuil Hall.

The Freedom Trail begins at the Boston Common Information Kiosk where you can obtain a free guide or rent a handheld self-guided audio tour complete with sound effects and anecdotes for $15, $12 for each additional adult and $10 for children. Free 90-minute, park ranger-guided tours will resume in the spring from the Boston National Historical Park Visitors Center at the corner of State and Devonshire streets. First come, first serve. Arrive 30 minutes prior to tour. Call 617-242-5642 for more information. The number accompanying each site listed below refers to the site's location as shown on Panorama's map (see facing page).

Boston Common (1). Set aside in 1634 as a military training field and grazing pasture, the Common is the oldest public park in America. The park served as quarters for British as well as Colonial troops, and housed Civil War regiments. The British Army set out for the start of the Revolutionary War from what is now Park Square.

The State House (2). Beacon Street, top of Beacon Hill facing Boston Common, 617-727-3676. Open Mon–Fri 10 a.m.–4 p.m., except holidays. Guided tours Mon–Fri 10 a.m.–3:30 p.m. The famous golden dome of the State House marks the government seat of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. The cornerstone was laid by Samuel Adams, and the building stands on land bought from John Hancock. The red brick portion was designed by the legendary architect Charles Bulfinch.

Park Street Church (3). Corner of Park and Tremont streets, 617-523-3383. Sunday services at 8:30 & 11 a.m. and 5 p.m. Built in 1809, this church was described by Henry James as “the most interesting mass of brick and mortar in America.”

Old Granary Burying Ground (4). Tremont Street next to Park Street Church, 617-635-4505. Open daily 9 a.m.–5 p.m. This historic cemetery, formerly the town granary, is the final resting place of John Hancock, Paul Revere, Robert Treat Paine, Samuel Adams, Peter Faneuil, James Otis and the victims of the Boston Massacre. A stone inscribed “Mary Goose” (a.k.a. Elizabeth Goose) allegedly marks the grave of Mother Goose.

King's Chapel and Burying Ground (5). Tremont and School streets, 617-227-2155. Open daily 10 a.m.–4 p.m.; closed Mon. Services: Sun at 11 a.m., Wed at 12:15 p.m. Burying Ground open daily 9 a.m.–5 p.m. Tours: Mon and Thu–Sat 9:30 a.m.–3:30 p.m.; Tue and Wed 1–4 p.m. Visitors are reminded that King's Chapel is a house of worship. The chapel was established in 1687 as the first Anglican congregation in Boston. The second chapel, built in 1754, became the first Unitarian church in America after the Revolution.

Site of the first public school and Ben Franklin's statue (6). On School Street, marked by a column and commemorative plaque. On April 13, 1635 the town voted to establish the first public school in the country (the forerunner of the Boston Latin School). Nearby is Benjamin Franklin's statue, built in 1856, the first portrait-statue erected in the United States.

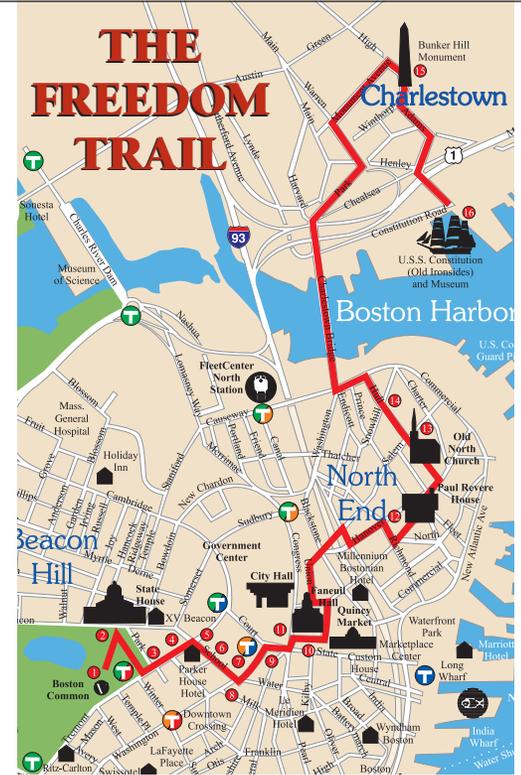

Site of the Old Corner Bookstore (7). School and Washington streets, 617-367-4000. Constructed as an apothecary in 1718, the ground floor was later used as a bookstore that became the center of literary Boston and the meeting place of such notables as Emerson, Hawthorne, Longfellow and Thoreau.

Old South Meeting House (8). 310 Washington St., 617-482-6439. Open Mon–Fri 10 a.m.–4 p.m.; Sat & Sun 'til 5 p.m. Admission: $5; students & seniors $4; children (6–18) $1; children (under 6) free. This building housed many town meetings, the most famous of which triggered the Boston Tea Party. Permanent exhibit: Voices of Protest.

Old State House (9). Corner of Washington and State streets, 617-720-1713. Open daily 9:30 a.m.–5 p.m. Admission: $5; students & seniors $4; children (6–18) $1; children (under 6) free. Built in 1713, this seat of colonial government was the center of activity for such patriots as John Hancock, and Samuel and John Adams. It was from the east balcony that the Declaration of Independence was first read in Boston.

Boston Massacre Site (10). State Street in front of the Old State House. At the next intersection below the State House, a ring of cobblestones marks the site of the clash between a jeering Boston crowd and a British guard of nine soldiers on March 5, 1770.

Faneuil Hall (11). Merchants Row and Faneuil Hall Square, 617-523-1300. Open daily 9 a.m.–5 p.m. Historical talks given daily every half hour 9:30 a.m.–4:30 p.m. Military museum open Mon–Fri 9 a.m.–3:30 p.m. “The Cradle of Liberty” combines in one building a free enterprise market on the first floor with a free marketplace for the exchange of ideas upstairs.

Paul Revere House (12). 19 North Square, Hanover Street, 617-523-2338. Open daily 9:30 a.m.–4:15 p.m. Admission: $2.50; students & seniors with I.D. $2; children (5–17) $1; (under 5) free. The oldest home in Boston, built about 1680, was occupied by Paul Revere from 1770 to 1800.

Old North Church (13). 193 Salem St., 617-523-6676. Open daily 9 a.m.–5 p.m. Sun services at 9 a.m. & 4 p.m. Known as Christ Church and erected in 1723, this is Boston's oldest standing church, where two lanterns were hung on April 18, 1775, signaling the Redcoats' departure by sea for Lexington and Concord.

Copp's Hill Burial Ground (14). Hull Street. Set out in 1660, Copp's Hill was Boston's second cemetery. Many remarkable people are interred here, including Increase Mather, his son Cotton, Cotton's son Samuel Mather and Edmund Hartt, builder of the U.S.S. Constitution.

Bunker Hill Monument (15). Breed's Hill, Charlestown, 617-242-5641. Climb the monument from 9 a.m.–4:30 p.m. Lodge and museum open daily 9 a.m.–5 p.m. The site of the historic battle of June 1775.

U.S.S. Constitution (16). Charlestown Navy Yard, Charlestown, 617-242-5670. Free guided tours Thu–Sun from 9:30 a.m.–3:50 p.m. This 44-gun frigate is the oldest commissioned warship in the world. The U.S.S. Constitution Museum, located adjacent to the ship, is open daily from 10 a.m.–5 p.m. Call 617-426-1812.

Boston's own “yellow brick road” is actually a red brick line weaving through the city and connecting 16 key historic sites. Each one tells a piece of the dramatic story of America's birth. These sites are not amusement park replicas; they are the actual places where Revolutionary War-era patriots like Paul Revere and John Adams once gathered. The Hub's most famous attraction, the Freedom Trail is walked by some three million visitors every year. The two-and-a-half-mile red brick pathway unites historic markers from the State House, with its brilliant gold dome, to the 204-year-old U.S.S. Constitution, a.k.a. “Old Ironsides.” In between, there's the Old Granary Burying Ground, the final resting place for American patriots like John Hancock, Paul Revere and James Otis; the Old South Meeting House and Faneuil Hall, where some of the most fiery debates of the Revolution took place; and the Old North Church, where two lanterns were hung to signal Paul Revere during his famous midnight ride.

Cambridge

Densely populated with immigrants, artists, students, professors and professionals, Cambridge is a study in diversity—a melding of tradition and progression. Stretching along five major squares, this city by the Charles River is like a museum of human ambition, boasting some of the best colleges and universities in the world, innovative museums, quirky second-hand shops, a vibrant music scene and ethnically diverse restaurants.

The people of Cambridge would like to inform the world that their fine city is not a neighborhood of Boston. Although it often gets lumped together with Beantown, Cambridge stands alone with all the sustaining qualities of an international city center. Yet some people don't even realize it's a separate city. Others associate Cambridge with Harvard University and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT), complete with stereotypical images of tweed-coated intellectuals in stuffy library halls and tech geeks in mad scientist laboratories. And with good reason. Cambridge's legacy in academia is as well-founded as Shakespeare's place in English literature. The city is home to 60 Nobel laureates and counting, a working population of which one-third holds professional or graduate degrees, and more bookstores per capita than in any other city in America. But there's more to this city than you can fit into a syllabus. Throughout Kendall, Central, Inman, Harvard and Porter Squares, nearly 100,000 residents share a spirited range of cultural influences.

Kendall Square is home to M.I.T. with its conspicuous concrete dome—the scene of many famous pranks. Although it looks more like a high-brow business park than a neighborhood, there are a few secret hiding places for fun among the sleek biotech firms and research labs, including the Kendall Square Cinema, the Kendall Cafe and the CambridgeSide Galleria, which houses over 100 stores, including Filene's, Banana Republic and Best Buy.

A little farther up the Charles, Central Square sets a swift pace as the social center for Cambridge professionals, college students and other urban dwellers. It's lined with coffee shops, burrito joints, down-home music stores, live music venues and its own share of great restaurants.

Just north of Central Square, the more residential, quieter Inman Square prides itself on hometown sensibility with diverse working-class inhabitants, many of whom speak Portuguese. It is a place where food brings people together at a range of local ethnic markets and restaurants known for their bold flavors.

There's even more joyful chaos at the grand cultural and geographical nucleus of Cambridge—Harvard Square. History is everywhere, including storied Harvard Yard, home of the homonymous Harvard University, which makes its quaint presence on the north side of the square. With all this intellectual energy flowing, it's no surprise that Harvard Square has been dubbed "the book mecca of the world." Not everyone here is a student, though. Along Massachusetts Avenue and JFK Street, musicians, magicians and street performers add color to the already bustling square.

The young artistic crowd fills the stretch of Cambridge just beyond Harvard Square. Porter Square brims with eclectic second-hand shops, restaurants and bars.

Just remember, Cambridge isn't Boston. But the friendly competition between the two cities won't keep Bostonians or other visitors from crossing the Charles River to experience the carnival of flavors that makes up one of America's most vibrant urban centers.

True BLUE by Christopher Wallenberg

AZURE 61 Exeter St., 617-933-4800

The sleek restaurant Azure in the tony Lenox Hotel may take its name from its blue-purple-accented decor, but we'll color the place urbane, inspired, even dazzling. Opened over two years ago with the innovative Robert Fathman at the helm, Azure features a seafood-centered menu that fuses contemporary American cuisine and exotic flavors with classic French technique. Throw in Fathman's famously whimsical and envelope-pushing ideas (oysters in bondage, anyone?), and you're in for a great night of dining. While he's often daring, Fathman treats each ingredient with the proper reverence. Those oysters, for instance, are wrapped in smoked salmon and encrusted in a potato coating that's fried and topped with creme fraiche and small bits of caviar. A confit of duck leg is kissed with white bean fondue and garlic. While the grilled corn chowder is infused with a cilantro-mint pesto and studded with rock shrimp fritters. Entrees rise to the occasion, too. A flaky, juicy pan roasted sea bass is splayed on grilled zucchini salad. A tender filet mignon, paired with grilled Hawaiian blue prawns, is accented with shallots, mashed potatoes and green beans. And while the chef may sport tattoos and ride a motorcycle, his dining room is nothing if not sophisticated. The turquoise blue-tinted glass bar is backed by a large mirror surrounded with shimmering cobalt tiles. Vaulted ceilings complement the elegant, classical-style windows. And plush chairs and cozy banquettes offer comfort in a gorgeous room that will have you feeling anything but blue.

HIGH 5: WINTER WARMERS

If Jack Frost won't stop nipping at your nose, a warm drink in a cozy locale is just the thing to help you nip back. From sinfully rich hot cocoa, to grown-up treats like hot cider and mulled wine, countless Boston-area haunts have just the thing to warm the cockles of your heart. Here are five of our favorites.

1 HENRIETTA'S TABLE, 1 Bennett St., Cambridge, 617-661-5005. Once its new ice skating rink opens later this month, this New England-inspired eatery will really get into full-swing, offering rink-side refreshments including the barn burner: hot apple cider with Southern Comfort, lemon rind and a cinnamon stick.

2 OAK ROOM, Fairmont Copley Plaza, 138 St. James Ave., 617-267-3500. With plush leather couches, dark wood accents and candlelight throughout, the Oak Room is the perfect place to cozy up with a hot toddy on a cool winter's night.

3 L.A. BURDICK CAFE, 52-D Brattle St., Cambridge, 617-491-4340. The hot chocolate at Burdick's is a legendary blend of rich, dark chocolate imported from France and steamed milk—as delectable as their world famous chocolates, only melted in a cup.

4 TEALUXE, 108 Newbury St., 617-927-0400, 0 Brattle St., Cambridge, 617-441-0077. The perfect place to enjoy a pot of tea, both for Tealuxe's precision brewing technique and the coziness of the shops, adorned with copper ceilings and walls filled with tea boxes.

5 GRENDDEL'S DEN, 89 Winthrop St., Cambridge, 617-491-1160. Tucked away in a basement in the heart of Harvard Square, this venerable Harvard haunt may have a fake fireplace, but it will still melt your heart thanks to its spicy mulled wine, a half-priced happy hour food menu and even cheese fondue.

Dick's LAST RESORT

Battle-scarred wooden tables, plain paper placemats, heaping buckets of hearty food brought to you by a wait-staff unafraid to speak plainly and trade a friendly barb—that's what you can expect at Dick's Last Resort. A down-to-earth decor and lively atmosphere are further signs that Dick's is the place to be if you're in the mood for robust, no-frills, decorum-be-damned dining.

Appetizers like the succulent, flavorful Alaskan king crab legs and the spicy boneless Buffalo tenders are a fine way to commence; when servers promptly fit you with plastic bibs, you'll know you've made the right choice, even if not the cleanliest. And when Dick's promises buckets of food, it's no mere metaphor: for those that order the crab legs and other select items, actual buckets of hot, steaming food are placed before you.

For those inclined, surf and turf could certainly become a running theme. The tender, juicy lobster and snooty filet mignon entree is the best of both worlds, and diners can create combos from such items as fried, BBQ and grilled garlic shrimp paired with the half slab of pork ribs, smothered in Dick's tangy BBQ sauce. Most meals come with Dick's fries, lightly seasoned, hand-cut masterpieces that any potato aficionado could appreciate, and crunchy, fresh cole slaw that might actually win over those who would usually push it aside.

Ending an evening at Dick's the right way is easy with selections like the triple chocolate cake, a decadent, almost-sinful combination of rich chocolate cake and hot fudge that is best shared.

Stuffing one's belly to the bursting point is not the only activity at Dick's. Live bands perform nightly into the wee hours of the morning. So whether you're after a satisfying, gut-busting meal, a fun night on the town, or even both, Dick's Last Resort is the place to park your keister for a good time. The NORTH END

Renowned as Boston's "Little Italy," the North End is constantly brimming with the aroma of garlic and freshly cooked cuisine. But its storied history is also part of its charm. The oldest neighborhood in the city, it gave birth to the American Revolution on its narrow cobblestone streets and has been home to wave after wave of new immigrants. Today, with such strong ties to its past, the North End remains one of the most European neighborhoods in America, offering the best in Old World cooking and tradition along with a variety of sightseeing and entertainment adventures year-round.

OH, CHRISTMAS TREE

Greater Boston Convention & Visitors Bureau

Panorama looks at the origins of the official City of Boston Christmas tree that lights up the Hub every year by Scott Roberto

Some gifts just keep on giving...and giving...and giving. So it has been for the past several decades with the Christmas tree donated to the city of Boston by the people of Nova Scotia, Canada. As befits the spirit of the season, the tradition originated from an act of kindness when Boston came to the aid of its neighbor to the north in its hour of need nearly 90 years ago.

In the days of World War I, Halifax, Nova Scotia was a bustling port for warships headed to and from Europe. But the prosperity this brought came at a terrible price when, on the morning of December 6, 1917, a Norwegian ship and a French ship laden with explosives collided off the coast, causing a fire on the latter vessel. After almost two hours adrift, the French ship came to rest at a Halifax pier, where it soon exploded, ending the lives of nearly 2,000 people and injuring thousands more.

Boston, in the wake of the tragedy, was one of the first cities to respond, sending much-needed supplies and a large contingent of emergency workers. Because of this, the Canadian province has donated the Hub's holiday evergreen since 1971. This year's lighting of the 46-foot white spruce on Boston Common featured Mayor Thomas Menino, who flipped the switch on the electric spectacle, and appearances by the Radio City Rockettes and the Red Sox's 2004

World Series trophy with a contingent of Sox players and brass—not to mention Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus themselves. That's enough yuletide cheer to ensure a truly jolly holiday season for all.

OTHER WAYS TO LIGHT UP YOUR HOLIDAYS

Holiday lights abound in the Boston area. Here's where you can see some of the best.

- Faneuil Hall Marketplace: Strings of white lights enliven this already lively shopping area.
- Downtown Crossing: Filene's features a gigantic, lighted tree atop its Washington Street facade.
- Harvard Square: Cambridge's Sparklefest sets the venerable square a-glitter.
- Back Bay: Commonwealth Ave. and Newbury and Boylston streets are annually aglow for the season.
- Stone Zoo: The Zoolights festival at this gem north of Boston shines every year. See listing, page 84.
