CHARLES STREET MEETING HOUSE

February is Black History Month, so there's no better time than now to explore the significant sites in African American history that are right here in Boston. One such locale is the Charles Street Meeting House in the Beacon Hill neighborhood. Completed in 1807, this stately brick structure has had many lives in its illustrious past. Although originally home to a white congregation, it later became a flash point for abolitionist fervor and a hotbed of activity for Beacon Hill's burgeoning 19th century black community, earning its prominent place on the Hub's Black Heritage Trail.

Designed by famed American architect Asher Benjamin, the edifice at the corner of Mount Vernon and Charles streets began its existence as the Third Baptist Church of Boston, although the name was later changed to Charles Street Baptist Church when the rights to that name were challenged by an African church also on Beacon Hill. For decades, the house of worship was strictly segregated, with black attendees forced to sit in the gallery and not allowed the same rights of white members. In 1836, however, abolitionist church member Timothy Gilbert invited a few black friends to sit with him in his pew. Gilbert was expelled from the congregation, going on to form, with several others, the First Baptist Free Church. Now known as the Tremont Temple, it was the first integrated church in this country. The Beacon Hill church eventually did take a stance against slavery and hosted such well-known abolitionist speakers as anti-slavery and women's rights advocate Sojourner Truth, publisher William Lloyd Garrison, lawyer and orator Wendell Phillips, former slave and famed statesman Frederick Douglass, Underground Railroad hero Harriet Tubman and U.S. Senator Charles Sumner.

A growing black population in the post-Civil War era led to the purchasing of the Charles Street edifice by the largest black congregation in Boston. In 1876, the building thus became the African Methodist Episcopal Church (A.M.E.), which remained at this location until 1939, when it moved to its current home in Roxbury. That year, the church was sold to the Charles Street Meeting House Society and served, briefly, as an Albanian Orthodox church and later as a Unitarian church from 1949 to 1961. A private owner took charge in 1980 under the provision from then-owner Society for the Preservation of New England Antiquities that a dedication to historic preservation would be observed. A few years later, an award-winning restoration process that divided the interior into a mix of office and retail space was completed. Current tenants include the acclaimed Tatte Bakery & Café (70 Charles St., 617-742-5415, tattebakery.com).

Today, the Charles Street Meeting House, listed on the National Register of Historic Places, is a stop on the Black Heritage Trail, which features 13 other sites and is overseen by both the nearby Museum of African American History (refer to listing, page 22) and the National Park Service. Park ranger-guided tours, although closed for the season, can be requested by calling 617-742-5415. Self-guided tour information can be obtained at the museum's Abiel Smith School building at 46 Joy Street. —Scott Roberto

HUB

LIFE IS A CABARET

One of the most acclaimed musicals of all time, Cabaret (refer to listing, page 18) tells the story of Berlin's seedy Kit Kat Klub and its denizens as they try to find an escape from the reality of the rising tide of Nazism in the fading days of Germany's Weimar Republic. Although revived a few times since its 1966 Broadway debut, the most recent production helmed by renowned film directors Sam Mendes (American Beauty, Skyfall) and Rob Marshall (Chicago) under the auspices of New York City's Roundabout Theatre Company, inspired by Mendes' and Marshall's Tony Award-winning 1998 version, won multiple Tony Awards itself. Now on the road, this take on the darkly dramatic musical by John Kander, Fred Ebb and Joe Masteroff makes its Hub debut at the Boston Opera House January 31–February 12, bringing such classic tunes as "Willkommen," "Maybe This Time" and the title song to the downtown Theatre District.

WHAT BOSTON'S BUZZING ABOUT
1.30.17

HUB OF HOCKEY

Detroit may claim the title of "Hockeytown, U.S.A.," yet Boston certainly gives Motown its fair share of competition for the rights to that nickname. Besides being a longtime center of pro hockey, Beantown is also a hotbed for the college game, as evidenced by The Beanpot (refer to listing, page 18). The ever-popular, 65th annual tournament between Hub-based Boston College, Boston University, Northeastern University and Harvard University begins February 6 at TD Garden at 5 p.m. when Harvard faces Northeastern, followed by B.C. versus B.U. at 8 p.m. A week later, on February 13, the winners vie for city bragging rights as well as the coveted, silver Beanpot trophy (pictured) at 7 p.m., with the consolation game taking place that afternoon at 4:30 p.m., making for a full day of hockey madness.

SWEET SCIENCE

With Valentine's Day on the horizon, perhaps it's fitting that Chocolate: The Exhibition recently made its Boston debut at the Museum of Science (refer to listing, page 22). The show, organized by Chicago's renowned Field Museum, tells the long journey of this sweet treat through the millennia, from its origins in ancient Mexico and Central America as a bitter beverage up to the more familiar confectionery forms which we enjoy today. Interactive displays, as well as more than 200 objects relating to everything from the cacao plant from which chocolate derives to 19th and 20th century advertisements, give visitors a more complete picture of everyone's favorite comfort food than even the most die-hard chocoholics ever imagined.

IRISH ACCENT

Dark humor and the Irish seem to go hand-in-hand, and there's no better illustration of this than Martin McDonagh's The Beauty Queen of Leenane (refer to listing, page 18), which comes to Boston's Emerson/Paramount Center Robert J. Orchard Stage February 8–26. Produced by Galway, Ireland's lauded Druid Theatre Company, McDonagh's twisted play chronicles the fraught, dysfunctional relationship between an unmarried, middle-aged woman and her manipulative mother. This is a revival of the Druid's multiple Tony Award-winning production that electrified Broadway nearly 20 years ago, and Tony Award-winning director Garry Hynes returns to oversee the U.S. tour, making this a must-see for aficionados of both Irish theater and taut family drama.

ON THE MOVE

International Poster Gallery (refer to listing, page 24) truly lives up to its name. This longtime fixture of the Boston art scene has been highlighting vintage advertising posters from all over the world for nearly a quarter century, introducing locals and visitors alike to a wide array of styles from 1890 to the present. After a long run on Newbury Street in the Back Bay, however, this purveyor of fine works on paper is moving its thousands of wares to a new storefront among the growing arts scene in the South End's SoWa (short for south of Washington Street) district. Beginning February 1, look for your favorite Art Nouveau, Art Deco and Modernist masterworks at 460 Harrison Ave., just off the Thayer Street pedestrian walkway and adjacent to a lot with plenty of free parking. —Scott Roberto

BIENVENUE À BOSTON!

Boston, Massachusetts est la ville la plus grande dans la Nouvelle-Angleterre. Fondée en 1630, Boston est l'une des plus anciennes villes des États-Unis et a été la scène de nombreux événements clés pendant la Révolution américaine, la Boston Tea Party, la Chevauchée de Paul Revere et la bataille de Bunker Hill. Pourtant, son histoire est juste une des nombreuses raisons pour lesquelles plus de 19 millions de visiteurs voyagent ici chaque année. Aujourd'hui Boston est connue pour ses collèges et universités de renommée mondiale, des équipements culturels exceptionnels, des institutions médicales supérieurs des industries de haute technologie et de la biotechnologie en plein croissance.

La meilleure façon d'explorer Boston est tout simplement de marcher. La ville est souvent dénommée comme une « ville de quartiers », et chacun d'eux a sa propre personnalité distincte mieux découverte à pied. Back Bay, le quartier le plus élégant de Boston, est un charmant mélange d'ancien et de nouveau, le foyer de monuments historiques importants tels que la Bibliothèque Boston Public, Copley Square, la rue branchée Newbury Street, les deux plus hauts bâtiments-200 Clarendon (anciennement la tour John Hancock) et le Prudential Building - et deux des plus belles artères résidentielles de l'Amérique, Commonwealth Avenue et Marlborough Street.

Le proche Beacon Hill devrait être le prochain sur votre chemin à pied, où les historiques maisons en briques rouges en rangée bordent les rues pittoresques et le charmant Charles Street attire avec ses nombreux magasins et restaurants. Vous pouvez aussi explorer les débuts du fameux Freedom Trail, qui se continue dans l'historique North End, « La petite Italie » propre a Boston. Découvrez une cuisine italienne authentique dans de nombreux excellents restaurants de North End et profiter des festivals animés tout au long des mois d'été. Après votre déjeuner ou dîner -et cannoli !-, marcher à travers la belle Rose Kennedy Greenway, qui sépare North End des boutiques, restaurants et lieux de divertissement myriade du marché de Faneuil Hall, l'une des destinations les plus populaires aux États-Unis.

De Faneuil Hall, vous pouvez retourner à Boston Harbor à travers la Greenway et suivre l'aimable Harbor Walk vers le plus récent quartier de Boston, le district de Seaport. Sur le chemin, vous découvrirez le New England Aquarium, les navires et la musée du Boston Tea Party, l'Institut d'Art Contemporain et des restaurants plus nombreux que ce que vous pouvez imaginer.

Ce ne sont que quelques-uns des quartiers étonnants de Boston. Visitez bostonguide.com pour plus de détails sur ces monuments et tous les autres endroits inoubliables uniques à "Beantown."

¡BIENVENIDO A BOSTON!

Boston, Massachusetts es la ciudad más grande de Nueva Inglaterra. Fundada en 1630, Boston es una de las ciudades más antiguas de los Estados Unidos y fue el escenario de muchos eventos claves durante la Revolución estadounidense el Motín del té, la cabalgada de medianoche de Paul Revere y la batalla de Bunker Hill. Sin embargo, su historia es sólo una de las muchas razones por las cuales más de 19 millones de visitantes vienen aquí cada año. Hoy Boston es conocida por sus universidades de fama mundial, los excelentes servicios culturales, las mejores instituciones médicas y las crecientes industrias de alta tecnología y de biotecnología.

La mejor manera de explorar Boston es caminando. La ciudad es a menudo llamada una "ciudad de barrios", y cada uno de ellos tiene su propia personalidad que se descubre mejor a pie. Back Bay, el barrio más elegante de Boston, es una encantadora mezcla de lo viejo y lo nuevo, es sede a monumentos históricos importantes, como la Biblioteca Pública de Boston, la Plaza Copley, la refinada calle Newbury Street, los dos edificios más altos de la cuidad 200 Clarendon (antiguamente la Torre de John Hancock) y el Prudential Building y una de las más bellas calles residenciales en los Estados Unidos a lo largo de la arbolada avenida Commonwealth y Marlborough Street.

La cercana vecindad de Beacon Hill, donde hileras de casas históricas de ladrillo rojo delinean calles pintorescas y Charles Street nos invita con sus numerosas tiendas y restaurantes finos, debe ser lo próximo en su paseo. También puede explorar los inicios del famoso Freedom Trail, que continúa en el histórico North End, la "Pequeña Italia" de Boston. Descubra la auténtica cocina italiana en muchos restaurantes excelentes de North End y disfrute de los animados festivales durante de los meses de verano. Después de su almuerzo o cenay cannolo, camine a través de la hermosa Rose Kennedy Greenway, que separa el North End de la miríada de comercios, restaurantes y entretenimientos del efervescente Mercado Faneuil Hall, uno de los sitios más visitados en los Estados Unidos.

De Faneuil Hall se puede regresar al otro lado de Greenway a la bahía de Boston y seguir el Harborwalk hacia el barrio más nuevo de Boston, el Distrito Seaport. Por el camino, descubrirá el Acuario de Nueva Inglaterra, varios hoteles alucinantes, el Museo del Motín del té, el Instituto de Arte Contemporáneo y más restaurantes que lo que se puede imaginar.

Estos son sólo algunos de los llamativos barrios de Boston. Visite bostonguide.com para ver más detalles sobre estos y todos los otros lugares inolvidables y únicos de "Beantown."

ボストンへようこそ!

マサチューセッツ州にあるボストンはニューイングランド地方で最大の都市です。 1630年に設立されたボストンはアメリカ合衆国で最も歴史のある都市のひとつであり、「ボストン茶会事件」、ポール・リビアの「真夜中の騎行」、「バンカーヒルの戦い」など、アメリカ独立戦争の鍵となる様々な事件の舞台ともなりました。 ですが、ボストンが歴史ある街であることは毎年19万人以上の旅行客が訪れる理由のたった１つにしか過ぎません。 今日、ボストンは世界で名高い大学、傑出した文化施設、トップレベルの医療機関そしていまなお成長を止まないハイテクノロジー産業とバイオテクノロジー産業があることで知られています。

ボストンを探検する一番いい方法は街歩きです。 ボストンは「ネイバーフッド」と呼ばれる地区のようなものが沢山あり、「シティー・オブ・ネイバーフッズ」としばしば言われています。それぞれの地区にははっきりとした個性があってそれらは街歩きによって最も体感することができます。 ボストンにおいて最も格調の高い地区であるバックベイは古き良きものと新しいものがうまく混在されている素敵な場所です。ボストン公立図書館、コプリー・スクエア、流行の最先端であるニューベリー・ストリート、(以前ジョンハンコックタワーと呼ばれていた)200クラレンドンとプルデンシャル・センターという街で最も高い2つのビル、そして木々が連なるコモンウェルスアベニューとマールバラストリートという、アメリカで最も美しい居住地区である大きな道路があります。

ベーコンヒルの近くが次にあなたが足で訪れるべき目的地となります。 そこはまるで絵本の世界にあるような道に歴史ある赤レンガの家々が連なり、沢山の面白いお店やレストランが旅行者を誘う可愛らしいチャールズ通りがある場所です。 ボストン固有のリトルイタリーがある歴史あるノース・エンドまで続く有名なフリーダムトレイルの最初の部分も散策することもできます。 正真正銘のイタリア料理をノース・エンドにある素晴らしいレストランで堪能してみてください、そして夏の間に開かれる活気あるフェスティバルを是非楽しんでください。 ランチやディナーの後は美しいローズ・ケネディ・グリーンウェイを横断してみてください。この道はショッピングや食事、エンターテイメントが心行くまで楽しめるファニルホール市場という、アメリカで最も観光客が訪れるにぎやかな場所の１つであり、その場所とノース・エンドを分けている道です。

ファニエルホールからはグリーンウェイを越えてボストンハーバーに歩いて帰ることができ、その道を進んでいくとボストンで一番新しい地区、シーポートエリアに向かうことができます。 その道沿いでは、ニューイングランド水族館、いくつかの特筆すべきホテル、ボストン茶会事件船と博物館、ボストン・コンテンポラリーアート美術館(ICAボストン)そして想像以上の数のレストランを見つけることができます。

これらはボストンの素晴らしい場所のほんの少しにしかすぎません。 bostonguide.comを検索して上記の場所についてのさらなる詳細やボストンのその他全てのユニークで忘れられないスポットについて是非調べてみてください。

Beacon Hill

Strolling along Beacon Hill's picturesque gas-lit streets, brick sidewalks and Federal-style row houses, it's not uncommon to feel as though you've traveled back in time. Both eminently posh and utterly accommodating, this area has borne witness to much of the city's storied past. The State House—with its gleaming gold dome—sits on the peak of the hill where the beacon for which the district was named used to reside. In this neighborhood, visitors can also find the African Meeting House, which holds the Museum of African-American History, as well as the Bull and Finch Pub, the inspiration for the popular TV show, "Cheers." Charles Street, located at the flat of the hill, is lined with boutiques, restaurants, cafes and charming hotels. Locals descend the hill daily to enjoy all that Charles Street has to offer, adding to the feeling of small-town charm.

Exquisite architecture and world-class retailers are plentiful in Boston's most well-known neighborhood. The Victorian brick and brownstone residences that line the streets are not only beautiful, they're widely regarded as the best-preserved examples of 19th-century urban design in the United States. Newbury and Boylston streets, where luxury shops vie for space amidst outstanding restaurants, welcome visitors and residents alike. Back Bay is also home to the iconic Prudential Tower, Trinity Church, Boston Public Library, the John Hancock Tower and two sprawling shopping malls connected by a climate-controlled bridge. You'll also find standout salons, spas, antique shops and galleries throughout. Nightlife thrives in Back Bay as well, where chic hotel bars, world-class restaurants and swanky lounges abound.

North End

Italian culture reigns in the North End, Boston's oldest and busiest neighborhood. The sweet scent of fresh cannoli rises from countless Italian bakeries that populate this district's narrow cobblestone streets, while the veritable buffet of dining choices will have you wishing there were more than three meals to enjoy in a day. Recently, clothing and home decor boutiques have been setting up shop here, making the North End an even more diverse and desirable destination. Don't even try to find a parking space—it's best to hop on the T or walk. If you happen to be strolling the Freedom Trail, you'll discover three of the North End's most important historical sites: The Paul Revere House, Copp's Hill Burying Ground and the Old North Church. Summertime brings people into the streets to celebrate various Italian feasts with music, socializing and, of course, sensational food.

The Fenway

Just south of the Charles River lies Boston's axis of entertainment, the Fenway. What was once a marshy wetland is now a thriving center of nightlife, arts and, of course, Fenway Park, home of the beloved Boston Red Sox. The Fenway district is often referred to as the Kenmore Square area and can easily be accessed from the T's Green Line. Lansdowne Street, located right next to Fenway Park, is a prime attraction and boasts an impressive number of bars and dance clubs, including the famed Cask 'n Flagon, House of Blues and The Bleacher Bar. If you're looking for a calmer cultural scene, the Museum of Fine Arts, Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum and Symphony Hall offer a welcome retreat from the hubbub. And if you don't have time to explore Fenway's many social and cultural offerings, you can still look up and appreciate Boston's famed CITGO sign hovering above it all.

South End

From award-winning restaurants to a throng of hip boutiques, the South End is one of the city's premier cultural hot spots, boasting a thriving theater scene, as well as one of the largest gay communities in New England. Along its notably scenic streets, you'll find elegant brick row houses, charming bakeries and scrupulously maintained private gardens. Follow Tremont Street to some of Boston's quirkiest shops, as well as a bevy of international dining options. Exceptional plays and musical performances are found at both the Boston Center for the Arts and the Calderwood Pavilion, while numerous arts events and interesting trade shows constantly overtake the Cyclorama—a 23,000 square-foot dome that first opened in 1865. With its avant-garde beauty and bohemian culture, the South End should be on any visitor's to-do list.

Located just across the Charles River from the North End and bordered by the Mystic River to the north, Charlestown, founded in 1629, is Boston's most historic neighborhood. Two of the famed Freedom Trail's most beloved sites—the Bunker Hill Monument, site of a pivotal Revolutionay War battle, and "Old Ironsides" herself, the U.S.S. Constitution, which is the world's oldest commissioned warship—are located here. Both sites also boast free museums. A variety of restaurants and shops can be found both near the waterfront area surrounding the historic Charlestown Navy Yard, in bustling City Square and amongst the well-preserved Colonial architecture along Main Street, where you can find the Warren Tavern, America's oldest watering hole and a local staple that has hosted the likes of Paul Revere, George Washington and Benjamin Franklin since its 1780 debut.

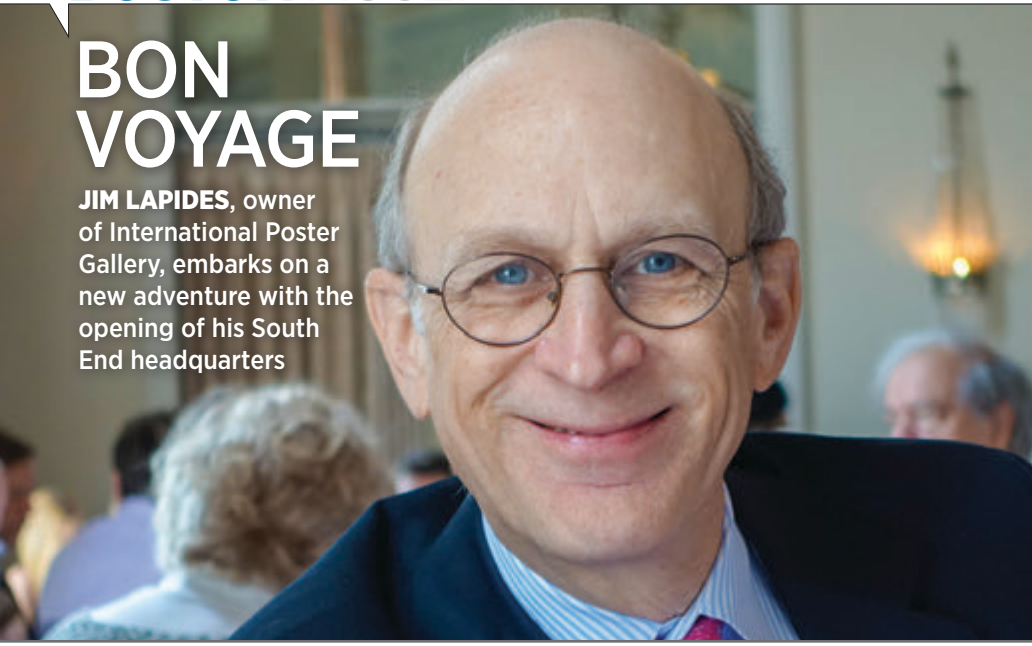
BON VOYAGE

JIM LAPIDES, owner of International Poster Gallery, embarks on a new adventure with the opening of his South End headquarters



"IN 1990 I WALKED INTO A GALLERY and discovered the world of original vintage posters," recalls Jim Lapides, owner of Boston's International Poster Gallery. With a degree in Italian Renaissance art, Lapides became enamored of Italian posters, amassing a collection that grew so quickly, he decided to open a gallery on Newbury Street with his favorite dealer in 1994. Over the intervening 22 years, the gallery continued to expand in new directions. "The word 'international' in our name means something," Lapides explains. "We have great Swiss, Italian, Dutch, Russian and American collections. We are strong in travel and transportation, war and propaganda, food and beverage, music and the arts and fashion, [with] roughly 10,000 posters…and some things like beautiful luggage labels."

Yet the story does not end here. This February, the International Poster Gallery is saying a fond farewell to Newbury Street, and hello to the up-and-coming SoWa arts district (so called for being south of Washington Street) in Boston's South End. Lapides is excited. "When you are an art dealer, you constantly have to reinvent yourself.…SoWa will be a continuation of that adventure [in] a new neighborhood, [with] a new, modern gallery that will have a totally different feel. Having a strong arts community around us will be invigorating. And free, convenient parking for our clients may sound prosaic, but it is a big plus."

What won't change is Lapides' dedication to building the collection and raising awareness of under-appreciated posters. "We have always thrived by plowing new ground in our field," says Lapides, "and that will continue. We have done pioneering shows and built world-class collections in many areas.…I expect that SoWa will be the perfect place to show more late 20th-century poster design." As always, the gallery remains welcoming to all, whether you are an avid collector eager for rare finds or a window-shopper casually browsing those curious, bold and beautiful images from the past that create a sense of nostalgia in so many.

For those who want to recreate this magic in their own home, Lapides offers sage advice: "The first rule is buy what you love. Posters are so wide-ranging; look until you find a subject, style or artist that really speaks to you." —Olivia J. Kiers
